

A REVELATION ABOUT HELL

HELL AND THE DWELLING OF THE DEAD

AND I SAW THE DEAD, GREAT AND LITTLE, STANDING ON THEIR FEET BEFORE THE THRONE. SOME BOOKS WERE OPENED. AND ANOTHER BOOK WAS OPENED, WHICH IS THE BOOK OF LIFE. AND THE DEAD WERE JUDGED ACCORDING TO THEIR DEEDS, ACCORDING TO WHAT WAS WRITTEN IN THOSE BOOKS.

APOCALYPSE 20.12

JESUS TELLS THE TRUTH ABOUT HEAVEN, BUT DOES HE LIE TO US WHEN HE SPEAKS ABOUT HELL?. THE LORD JESUS SPOKE MORE TIMES ABOUT ETERNAL PUNISHMENT THAN ABOUT HEAVEN. FRIEND, IF YOU DON'T BELIEVE IN HELL, IT MEANS YOU DON'T BELIEVE IN JESUS, YOU DON'T BELIEVE WHAT HE SAID. IN FACT, THIS IS THE PROBLEM.

MY BROTHERS, WE MUST FIRST BELIEVE IN THE LORD JESUS, AND THEN WE WILL BELIEVE EVERYTHING HE SAID. NOT NOTIFYING THE DANGER IS A GREAT GUILT. WE ARE CALLED TO TELL THE WHOLE TRUTH AND PLUCK SOULS FROM LOSTNESS.

THE PARABLE OF THE MERCILESS RICH

HE WAS A RICH MAN, WHO DRESSED IN PORPHYRY AND THIN; AND EVERY DAY HE LEAD A LIFE FULL OF JOY AND BRILLIANCE. AT HIS DOOR LAY A POOR MAN NAMED LAZAR, FULL OF BUMPS. AND HE WANTED VERY MUCH TO BE SATISFIED WITH THE CRUMBLES, WHICH FELL FROM THE RICH MAN'S TABLE; EVEN THE DOGS CAME AND LICKED HIS BUBBLE. IN TIME THE POOR DIED; AND HE WAS CARRIED BY THE ANGELS INTO ABRAHAM'S BOAST. THE RICH MAN ALSO DIED AND THEY BURIED HIM. WHILE HE WAS IN THE HOUSE OF THE DEAD, IN TORMENT, HE LIFTED HIS EYES UPWARDS AND SAW ABRAHAM FROM Afar, AND LAZARUS IN HIS BOSM, AND CRIED: "FATHER ABRAHAM, HAVE MERCY ON ME, AND SEND LET LAZAR DIP THE TIP OF HIS FINGER IN WATER, AND COOL MY TONGUE; FOR I AM GREATLY TORTURED IN THIS WRATH." "SON", ABRAHAM ANSWERED, "REMEMBER THAT, IN YOUR LIFE, YOU TOOK YOUR GOOD THINGS, AND LAZARUS TOOK HIS BAD; NOW HERE HE IS COMFORTED, AND YOU ARE TORMENTED. ON BESIDES ALL THIS, BETWEEN US AND YOU THERE IS A GREAT GAP, SO THAT THOSE WHO WOULD PASS FROM HERE TO YOU, OR FROM THERE TO US, CANNOT." THE RICH SAID: "FATHER ABRAHAM, PLEASE SEND LAZARUS TO MY FATHER'S HOUSE; FOR I HAVE FIVE BROTHERS, AND TO PROVIDE THESE THINGS TO THEM, SO THAT THEY ALSO WILL NOT COME TO THIS PLACE OF TORMENT."

ABRAHAM ANSWERED: "THEY HAVE MOSES AND THE PROPHETS; LISTEN TO THEM." "NO, FATHER ABRAHAM", HE SAID, BUT IF SOMEONE FROM THE DEAD COME TO THEM, THEY WILL REPENT. AND ABRAHAM ANSWERED: "IF THEY DO NOT LISTEN TO MOSES AND THE PROPHETS, THEY WILL NOT BELIEVE EVEN IF SOMEONE RAISES FROM THE DEAD."

LUKE CHAPTER 16 VERSES 19-31

TIME IS RUNNING OUT. TIME IS RUNNING OUT!!!!

Content

INTRODUCTION	3
ABOUT THE AUTHOR	4
In Hell.....	5
HELL'S STING FOOT	6
THE RIGHT LEG OF HELL	10
PIT AGAIN.....	12
THE TUNNEL OF FEAR	15
ACTIVITY IN HELL	16
THE BELLY OF HELL	19
CELLS FROM HELL.....	19
THE HORRORS OF HELL	21
THE HEART OF HELL.....	24
THE DARK OUTSIDE.....	26
Horns	27
THE RIGHT ARM OF HELL.....	28
THE LEFT ARM OF HELL	30
THE DAYS OF JOEL	31
THE CENTER OF HELL.....	32
WAR IN HEAVEN	34
SEEING WITH OPEN EYES.....	35
THE JAWS OF HELL.....	37
Heaven.....	40
FALSE RELIGION	41
THE RETURN OF CHRIST	42
THE FINAL ACT OF GOD.....	43
LIKE GOD.....	44
THE GOLDEN MOUNTAINS.....	44
BUILDING A HOUSE.....	44
THE GATES OF HEAVEN.....	45
FILE ROOM.....	45
HEAVENLY STAIRCASE.....	45
A prophecy from Jesus	45
CLOSING WORDS.....	46
A VISION OF HELL.....	46

INTRODUCTION

And if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. Likewise, if Satan rebels against himself, he is divided, and cannot endure, but is finished with him.

MARK 3-25,26

The narrow gate

Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate, broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter it. But narrow is the gate, narrow is the way that leads to life, and there are few who find it.

Matthew 7:13-14

FOREWORD

Kathryn Baxter's tapes about the abode of the dead or about hell had such an impact on my life that I felt an imperative need to know her. I was particularly interested in getting hold of her book and learning more about the mysteries of heaven and hell. When I spoke with her on the phone on July 12, 1987, we both knew that the Lord had put us together for a purpose, to publish this book and get it into the hands of the people. Many years passed before Kathy was able to put this message on paper. Her courage and perseverance under great trials and persecutions are attributed to our Lord, Jesus Christ. His timing is perfect, and now is the appointed time for these things to be revealed to the world. Reading the manuscript in the original, I was terribly shocked and shaken to hear about the poor souls who were lost in hell forever. However, I was not so terribly shocked by the depiction of demons and Satan himself, because they reminded me of the demonic beings and monsters that were created by Hollywood movie makers. I truly believe that only the wonderful things of God are truly inspired by Him. That is why I think that the horrible things of the world are inspired by Satan himself. He did a very clever thing to convey his message to the people. A good example are the films made today about the occult and with demonic beings. But God does not allow himself to be mocked! . I believe that God allowed all of this to allow the people to see the reality of demonic forces, and to know how to be freed from Satan's grip. One thing demonic books and movies won't tell you is how to free yourself from this terror of fear and death. This book, A Shocking Discovery. Our Lord shows us the way out. He is our only hope. He alone can save us from the horrors of "hell on earth and eternal hell after death. The Bible warns us of all these evils. The discovery and prophecy given to Kathryn Baxter and her visit to hell are proofs that the Word of God will not return without fruit, but will fulfill what is given to him. Kathy's experience with hell brings back to life the warnings that were written for us two thousand years ago. The realities of Satan and demonic spirits have been around us for so long that we have been deceived into thinking that we are without any power. We have been so deceived that we even dress up our children in costumes like the devil and his demons. We believe that we are in control of our lives, but the Lord he tells us very simply when he says, "Choose whom you will serve today. God, and God alone, is in control of life and death. The choice and decision of whom you will serve is yours alone."

Dee Cushing

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Kathryn Baxter was born in Khattnooga, Tennessee. She was raised in the Lord's house, even when she was little, her mother taught her about Jesus Christ and salvation through Him. Kathryn was born again at the age of 19. After serving the Lord for a few years, she drifted away from the Lord for a while. The Spirit of God did not give her peace, and she had to turn back and she surrendered her life again to Christ. She now serves Him faithfully. In the mid-1960s Kathryn moved with her family to Detroit, Michigan, where she lived for a time. He later moved to Belleville, Michigan where he began to have visions from the Lord. During her years in Michigan, she submitted herself totally to the elders and leadership of the Lord's house. Pastors, leaders and saints of the Lord speak well of her and her ministry. The movement of the Holy Spirit is powerful in all its services, and many miracles have taken place in them. The gifts of the Holy Spirit with demonstrations are manifested in her meetings, as she is led by the Spirit of God. She loves the Lord with all her heart, mind, soul and strength, and she wants more than anything to be a soul winner for Jesus Christ. Kathryn has been married to Bill Baxter for over 24 years. They have four children and six grandchildren, who help them in their work. She is truly a dedicated servant of the Lord. Her calling is specifically in the realm of dreams, visions, and discoveries. She was ordained as a woman minister in 1983 at the Full Gospel Church of God in Taylor, Michigan. She now serves under the authority of the National Church of God in Washington D.C. In 1976 while still living in Belleville, Jesus appeared to him in human form, in dreams, visions and discoveries or revelations. Since then she has received many more visits from the Lord. During these visits He showed him the depths, degrees, levels and tortures of souls lost in hell. They were also given visions of heaven, the period of great tribulation, and the time of the end. During a period of her life, Jesus came to her every night for forty nights. He told her that this message is for the whole world.

FROM THE AUTHOR

I admit that without the supernatural power of the Lord Jesus Christ, neither this book nor others that have the purpose of dealing with the afterlife could have been written. Jesus alone holds the keys to hell and He paid the price for our entrance into heaven. [Hallelujah!]

The path of writing this book was long, lonely and required experience. In fact, the book waited several years to be exhibited. I had the discoveries from God in 1976. It took 8 months to put them on paper. The writing of the manuscript itself took a period of several years, and putting the Scripture references in chronological order took another year. Completing the book took the better part of the winter of 1982 and 1983. In addition, for a period of forty days Jesus took me to hell. I see now that the Lord prepared me to write this book since I was a child and I had dreams about God. After I was born again, I had a very strong love for the lost and I wanted to see souls saved. After the appearance of the Lord in 1976 when he told me that I was chosen for a special mission, He said to me: "My daughter, I will manifest myself to you to bring people out of the darkness into the light. Because the Lord God has given you -he chose you for a purpose: To write and record the things that I will show you and tell you. "I will reveal to you the reality of hell, so that many can be saved (saved), many will repent from their evil ways before it is too late. "Your soul will be taken out of your body by Me, the Lord Jesus Christ, and will be transferred to hell and other places that I want you to see. I will also give you visions of heaven and other places, and I will give you many discoveries."

Mary Kathryn Baxter

In Hell

In March 1976, while I was praying alone at home, I received a visit from the Lord Jesus Christ. A few days before I had started to pray through the Spirit, when suddenly I felt the presence of God. His power and glory filled the house. A bright light flooded the room where I was praying, and a wonderful sweetness filled my being. Lights extended in waves, rolling, overlapping, twisting and unfolding into each other, merging and then unfolding again. It was something spectacular! Then the voice of the Lord began to speak to me. He said, 'I am Jesus Christ, your Lord, and I wish to give you a revelation to prepare the saints for My return, and many to return to righteousness. The powers of darkness are real and My judgments are true. "My daughter, I will take you to hell by My Spirit and I will show you many things that I want the world to know. I will come to you many times; I will take your spirit out of your body, and I will take you in hell. "I want you to write a book and tell all the visions and all the things that I will reveal to you. We will go to hell together. Write down all these things that were, and are, and are to come. My words are true, and worthy of belief. I am That I am, and there is none besides Me." "Dear God," I cried, "What do you want me to do?" my whole being tended towards Jesus, recognizing his presence. To best describe it is enough to say that LOVE poured over me. It was the most wonderful, full of peace and joy, almighty love, that I have ever felt. Praises to God began to flow from me. Suddenly I wanted to give my whole life to be used by Him to save people from their sins. I knew, through the Spirit, because the One who was with me in the room was really Jesus, the Son of God. I cannot find words to express His Divine presence. But I know for sure that it was the Lord. "Behold, My daughter," said Jesus, "I will take you by My Spirit into hell, that you may testify of its reality, tell the whole world that hell is real, and draw the lost out of the darkness and to bring them to the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ."

Instantly, my soul was taken out of my body. I left with Jesus, out of my room, into the air. I knew everything that was happening to me. I saw my husband and children sleeping in the house below us. It was as if I had died and my body remained in bed while my spirit walked with Jesus through the roof of the house. It looked like the whole roof had caved in and I could see my family sleeping in their beds. I felt the touch of Jesus telling me, "Don't be afraid; they are safe." He knew my thoughts. I will try my best to tell you step by step what I saw and what I felt. I did not understand certain things. The Lord Jesus told me the meaning of most of them, but he did not tell me certain things. I knew then, and I know now, because these things really happened and that only God could show them to me. Glory be to His holy name! People, believe me, hell is real! I was led there by the Spirit several times during the preparation of this report. Soon I was up in the air. I turned and looked at Jesus. He was full of power and glory, and yet so much peace flowed from Him. He took my hand and said, "I love you; do not be afraid, for I am with you." At this, we began to rise even higher, and now we could see the ground below. Coming out of the ground and spread out in many places were some funnels rotating around a point in one direction and another. They moved far above the ground and resembled a kind of dirty, huge harmonica, which was constantly moving. They came from many parts of the earth. "What are these?" I asked the Lord Jesus when I got close to one. "These are the gates of hell," He said. "We're going to hell through one of them." Immediately, I went down and entered one of these funnels. The interior looked like a tunnel that rotated sometimes in one direction and in another, like a puppet show.

A deep darkness suddenly enveloped us, and with the darkness came a smell so terrible that it took my breath away. On the edges of this tunnel were living forms firmly fixed in the dark gray walls; the shapes moved and called out to us when we reached them. I knew without being told because they were demonic. These forms could move, but were fixed to the walls. A horrible smell came from them, and they screamed at us with the most terrible cries. I felt an invisible force moving inside the tunnels. Sometimes in the darkness I could make out His forms, but a dirty mist covered most of them. "God, what are these?" I asked holding Jesus' hand tightly. He replied, "These are evil spirits ready to be spat out on the earth when Satan gives the order." Walking down the tunnel, the demonic forms were laughing and calling out to us, trying to touch us, but they couldn't because of the power of Jesus. Even the air was polluted and dirty, and only the presence of Jesus stopped me from screaming in such horrible horror. Oh of course, I had all my senses I could hear, smell, and even taste the presence of evil in that place. I could even say that my senses became more sensitive, and the smell and the mess almost made me sick. Screams filled the air as we neared the base of the tunnel. Piercing screams greeted us in the dark tunnel. I could feel fear, death and sin all around me. The most terrible smell I had ever smelled filled the air. It was the smell of rotting flesh, and it seemed to come from every direction. Never on earth have I felt such a bad atmosphere and never heard such cries of despair. I was soon to learn that these were the cries of the dead and that hell was full of their wails. We felt a demonic gust of wind and a light absorbing force in front of us. Lights like lightning or flashlights pierced the black darkness and cast gray shadows on the walls. With great difficulty I could see that something was in front of me. I backed away in shock when I realized a huge snake was walking in front of us. Looking closer I saw ugly snakes shining everywhere. Jesus said to me, "soon we will enter the left foot of hell. Next you will see a heavy bitterness, a pathetic sadness and an indescribable horror. Stay close to Me, and I will give you strength and protect you in our way through hell.

The things you will see are a warning," He told me. "The book you will write will save many souls from hell. The kayak you see is real. Fear not, for I am with you. Finally, together with the Lord Jesus, we reached the end of the tunnel. I stepped into hell. I will try as best I can to describe what I saw, and I will tell them in the order that God gave them to me. In front of us, as far as we could see, there were flying objects darting sometimes to one side and to another. Moaning and heartbreaking sobs filled the atmosphere. Far in front of us we saw a faint light and we started walking towards it. The path was dry, full of dust. and soon we reached the entrance of a small, dark tunnel. Certain things I cannot put on paper; they are too horrible to describe. The fear in hell can be tasted, and I knew that if I had not been with Jesus I would not have been able to return. In writing these things, there are certain things which I saw but which I did not understand; but the Lord knows all things, and He helped me to understand most of what I saw.

Let me warn you do not go to that place. It is a repulsive place of torture, of terrible pain and eternal bitterness. Your soul will always be alive. The soul lives forever. It will be very real to you, and your soul will either go to heaven or hell. To those who believe that hell is on earth well, you are right. Hell is in the middle of the earth, and there are souls in torment day and night. There are no parties in hell. It's not love. It is not mercy. It is not rest. It is nothing but a place of bitterness beyond all imagination.

HELL'S STING FOOT

A horrible smell filled the air. Jesus said to me, "In the left leg of hell there are many pits. This tunnel splits off into other parts of hell, but we'll stay in the left leg for a while first. "The things you will see will be in your memory all the time. The world needs to know about the reality of hell. Many sinners and even some of My children do not believe that hell is real. You have been chosen by Me to show them these truths. . Everything I will show you about hell and other things is true." Jesus appeared to me in a form of bright light, brighter than the sun. In the midst of that light was the form of a man, but at other times He was in the form of a ghost. He spoke again: "My daughter, when I speak, the Father has also spoken. The Father and I are one. Remember to love above all things and to forgive one another. Come now, and follow me ." When we passed, the evil spirits fled from the presence of the Lord. "Oh God, Oh God," I cried, "What's next?" As I said before, I had all my senses in hell. All who are in hell retain their senses. Mine were working at full power. Fear was felt everywhere, and unexpected dangers lurked everywhere. Each step taken was far more horrible than the one before. At the top end of the tunnel, there were doors the size of small windows that opened and closed very quickly. Screams filled the air and demonic creatures flew past us up and out of the gates of hell. Soon we reached the end of the tunnel. I was trembling with terror because of the danger and fear around us.

I was very grateful for Jesus' protection. I thank God for His almighty power to protect us even in the depths of hell. But even with this protective shield, I kept thinking, Not my will, Father, but Yours be done. I looked at my body. For the first time I noticed that I was in ghost form, and that this form looked exactly like myself. I was thinking about what could be next with Jesus I stepped out of the tunnel onto a path that had large patches of earth on each side. Fire pits were everywhere as far as the eye could see. The pits were four feet wide and three feet deep and shaped like a bowl. Jesus said to me, "There are many pits like these in the left leg of hell.

Come, and I will show you some of them."

I was sitting next to Jesus on the path and I was looking into one of those pits. The edges of the pit were covered with soot and had a red glow like burning coals from a fire. In the center of the pit was a soul that had died and gone to hell. The fire began to burn at the bottom of the pit and licked up on it higher and higher and clothed the soul lost in flames, in a moment the fire subsided until it was only a ember, but then with a loud roar it rose again over the tortured soul in the pit. I looked and saw that the lost soul in the pit was latched into a skeleton. 'Lord,' I cried at this sight, 'Can't you let him out?' How terrible the sight was! I thought, This could have been me. I said, 'Lord, how sad it is to see and know that a living soul is here.' I heard a cry coming from the middle of the first pit. I saw a soul in the form of a skeleton, crying, "Jesus, have mercy!" "Oh, Lord!" I said. It was the voice of a I looked at her and wanted to pull her out of the fire. The skeleton in the form of a dirty gray inside was talking to me. I listened to what she was saying from her bones, and how she was burning in the middle of the pit, where her eyes had once been, there was no hair at all. The fire was beginning at her soles as they rose up her body to be continually burning, even when the flames were but embers. From the depths of her being came cries and moans of despair: "God, God, I want out of here!" He was always reaching out to Jesus. I looked at Jesus, and He had a very great pain imprinted on His face. Jesus said to me, "My daughter, you are here with Me to let the world know that sin ends in death, and that hell is real." I looked at the woman again, and saw maggots climbing out of the bones of her skeleton. They were not harmed by the fire Jesus said, "She knows, and feels those worms inside! them."

"Lord, have mercy!" I cried as I saw the fire reach its peak and the horrible burning process began again. Great cries and deep roars shook the form of this female soul. She was lost. There was no way out. "Jesus, why is she here?" I asked in a low voice, because I was scared. Jesus said to me, "Come." The path we were on was winding, twisting and turning through these pits of fire as far as the eye could see. The cries of the living dead, mixed with hideous moans and howls, reached my ears from all directions. There were no quiet moments in hell. The smell of death and rotting flesh hung like a blanket, thick in the air. We reached the next pit. Inside this pit, which was about the same size as the other, was another skeletal form. A man's voice cried out of the pit, saying, "Lord, have mercy on me!" Only when they spoke could you tell if the soul in question was male or female.

Great wailing roars were coming from this man I'm sorry Jesus! let me go! Get me out of here! I have been in this place of torture for years. I am begging you for mercy, let me out!" Deep sobs shook this skeletal form as it begged for mercy, Please, Jesus, let me out!" I looked at Jesus and saw that He was also crying. He looked up and said, "Father, Father, have mercy!" "Lord Jesus," cried the man from the burning pit, "Have I not suffered enough for my sins? It's 40 years since my death."

Jesus said to him, "It is written, 'The just shall live by faith!' All scoffers and unbelievers will have their share in the lake of fire. You did not want to believe the truth. Many times My children were sent to you to show you the way, but you did not listen to them. You laughed at them and refused the Gospel.

Although I died on the cross for you, you mocked Me and did not want to repent of your sins. My Father gave you many opportunities to be saved If you would have obeyed! Jesus was weeping. "I know, God, I know!" the man shouted. "But now I repent." "It is too late," said Jesus. "Judgment is pronounced." The man continued, "Lord, some of my people come here because they do not repent. Please God, let me go and tell them that they must repent while they are still on earth. I don't want let them come here!" Jesus said, "They have preachers, teachers, deacons all ministering the gospel. They will tell them. They also have the advantages of modern communication systems and many other ways to find out about Me. I have sent workers to them so that they can believe and be saved. If they will not believe when they hear the gospel, they will not be impressed even if one rises from the dead." At this, the man became very angry and began to curse." Malicious words and curses against God came out of him. I watched in horror as the flames rose and his dead and rotting flesh began to burn and fall in pieces into the pit of this dead man, I saw his soul. It was like a dirty gray fog that filled his entire skeleton. I turned to Jesus and cried, "God, how horrible!" Jesus said, "Hell is real; judgment is real. I love them so much, My daughter! This is just the beginning of the scary things I am going to show you. There are many more to come." Tell the world from My because hell is real, that men and women must repent of their sins. come follow me we have to, let's move on."

In the next pit was a very short woman who appeared to be about 80 years old. I can't say how I figured out her age, but I knew it. The skin was pulled from his bones by the continuous flames, and only the bones remained together with the soul like a dirty fog inside. I watched as the fire burned her. Soon there were only bones and worms crawling inside, which the fire could not burn. "God, how terrible!" I shouted. "I don't know if I will be able to go forward, because this is beyond imagination." As far as I could see there were souls burning in pits of fire. "My daughter, that is why you are here," Jesus answered. "You must know and tell the truth about hell. Heaven is real! Hell is real! Come, we must move on." I looked back at the woman. Her cries were so sad. As I looked at her, she put the bones of her palms together as if in prayer. I couldn't stop crying. I was in spirit form, and yet I was crying. I knew that people in hell feel all these things. Jesus knew my thoughts. "Yes, My daughter," He told me. "they know. When people come here, they have the same senses and thoughts as when they were on earth, they remember their families and friends and all the times when they would have had an opportunity to repent, but they refused to do it. The memory stays with them forever. If only they had listened to the gospel and repented before it was too late. I looked at the old woman again, and this time I noticed that she had only one leg, and it seemed that she had holes drilled in her hip. "What are these, Jesus?" he said, "Daughter, while she was on the ground, she was in great pain." operation to save his life. She lay like a bitter old woman for many years. Many of My people came to pray for her, and to tell her that I could heal her. But she said, God did this to me, and she did not want to repent and believe in the Gospel. Although he once knew Me, but in time he began to hate Me. "She said that she did not need God and that she did not want to be healed by Me. However, I insisted, still wanting to heal her and bless her. She turned her back on Me and cursed Me. said that she did not want Me. My Spirit insisted on her. Even after she turned her back on Me, I still tried to draw her, but she did not want to listen, finally she died and come here." The old woman began to cry out to Jesus, "Lord Jesus, please save me now I'm sorry I didn't repent while I was on earth!" With great lamentations she cried out to Jesus. "If only I had repented before it was too late! Lord, help me out of here! I will serve You only! I will be good! Have I not suffered enough? Why did I wait until it was too late? Oh , why did I wait until Your Spirit stopped fighting with me?" Jesus said to him, "You have had opportunity after opportunity to repent and serve Me." Leaving there, I saw the sadness on Jesus' face. Looking at the weeping old woman I asked, "Lord, what's next?" I could feel the fear all around me. Bitterness, cries of pain and an atmosphere of death was everywhere. Jesus and I left full of sorrow and pity to the next pit. Only by His strength could I go on. At a great distance I could hear the cries of repentance and requests for forgiveness of the old woman. If I could somehow help her! I thought. Sinner, please do not wait until the Spirit of God ceases to wrestle with you.

In the next pit I saw a woman on her knees, as if she was looking for something. Her skeletal form was full of holes. Her bones could be seen through her torn dress, engulfed in fire. Her head was bald, and where the eyes and nose should have been, there were only holes. A small fire burned around her feet where she knelt, and she clung to the edges of the sooty pit. Fire clung to her hands and dead flesh fell as she dug with her nails. Terrible sobs shook her. 'Oh, God, Oh God!' she cried, 'I want out!' to be broken at the top and hung on his side. His color was a black-brown, and his eyes were set deep in his head. The demon rushed to woman and pushed her very hard into the pit and into the fire. I watched in horror as she fell, I felt sorry for her. I wanted to take her in my arms and ask God to heal her and get her out of there.

Jesus knew my thoughts and said, "My daughter, judgment has been pronounced. God has spoken. Even when she was a child, I called her countless times to repent and serve me." When she was 16 years old I came to her and said, 'I love you. Give Me your life, and follow Me, because I have called you to a special work. I called her all her life, but she did not listen to Me. "She said to Me, 'Someday I will serve You. I have no time for You now. I have no time, I have no time, I have my life of pleasure. I have no time, I have no time to serve You on Hold now, Jesus. Tomorrow I will serve you.' Tomorrow never came, because she waited too late." The woman cried out to Jesus, "My soul is truly in torment. There is no way out of here. I know that I wanted the world instead of You, Lord. I wanted riches, fame and fortune; and I got it. I could buy everything I wanted; I was the most beautiful, the best dressed woman of my time. And I had riches, fame and fortune, but I could not take them with me beyond death . Oh my God, hell is horrible! I have no rest day and night! I am always in pain and torment! Help me, Lord!" she cried. The woman looked up at Jesus in such sorrow and said, 'My dear Jesus, if only I had listened to You! I will regret this forever. I was planning to serve You in some day when I will be ready. I thought that you will always be at my disposal. But how wrong I was! I was one of the most wanted women of my time. I knew that God was calling me to repent. All my life He drew me with strings of love, and I believed that I could use God just as I used each other. He will always be at my disposal. Oh yes, I took advantage of God. He was trying so hard to get me to serve Him, while I always thought I didn't need Him. Oh, how wrong I was! But Satan began to use me, and I began to serve Satan more and more. In the end I came to love him more than God, I loved sin and I didn't want to go back to God. "Satan used my beauty and my money, and all my thoughts were directed to the power he would give me. Even then, God continued to draw me. But I thought, I still have tomorrow, still tomorrow, or the next day. But one day while I was in the car, my driver entered a house, and I was killed. Lord, let me out!" As she spoke, her bony hands reached out to Jesus as the fire continued to burn her. Jesus said, "Judgment is pronounced." Tears streamed down His cheeks as we walked toward another pit. I was weeping in the depths of my soul. "Dear Jesus," I cried, "the torment is so real! When a soul comes here, there is no hope, no life, no love. Hell is too real!" No way out, I thought. She must burn eternally in these flames.

"The time is up," said Jesus. "We'll come back tomorrow." Friend, if you are living in sin, please repent. If you have been born again and have turned your back on God, repent and return to Them now. Live right and uphold the truth! Wake up before it's too late, and you will be able to spend eternity with the Lord in heaven.

Jesus said again, "Hell has a body (like a human form) lying on its back in the center of the earth. Hell has the shape of a very large human body with many torture chambers. "Remember to tell the people on earth that hell it is real. There are millions of lost souls here, and more are coming daily. On the Great Day of Judgment, death and hell will be thrown into the lake of fire; that will be the second death.

THE RIGHT LEG OF HELL

I haven't been able to sleep or eat since I was in hell the night before. Every day I relived hell. When I closed my eyes, all I could see was hell. My ears could not remain deaf to the cries of the condemned. Just like a TV show, I relived all the things I saw in hell over and over again. Every night I was in hell, and every day I struggled to find the right words to make this terrible thing known to everyone. Jesus appeared to me again and said, "At night, we will go to the right foot of hell, My daughter. Do not be terrified, because I love you and I am with you. The face of the Lord Jesus was full of sadness, and His eyes were full of tenderness and deep love. Although those in hell are lost forever, I knew He still loves them and will love them forever. "My daughter," He said, "God, our Father, has given everyone a will to choose whether they want to serve Him or Satan. God did not make hell for His people. Satan deceives many to follow him; but hell was made for Satan and his angels. It is neither my will nor the Father's that any should perish." Tears of pity trickled down Jesus' cheeks. He began to speak again, "Remember My words in the days to come when I will show you hell: 'I have all power in heaven and on earth. Sometimes it will seem to you that I have forsaken you, but I have not I leave you. Sometimes we will be seen by demonic forces and lost souls. Wherever we go, be safe and follow me. Crying, I followed closely behind Him. For days I kept crying, and I couldn't free myself from the presence of hell that was always in front of me. I was crying mostly inside. My spirit was very sad. I have reached the left foot of hell. Looking ahead, I saw that we were on a path that was dry and burnt. Screams filled the foul air, and the smell of death was everywhere. The smell was sometimes so repulsive that I wanted to vomit. Everywhere was darkness, except for the light that emanated from Christ and the burning pits that dotted the land as far as the eye could see.

Suddenly, demons of all kinds started passing us. Little devils growled at us when we passed them. Demons of all sizes and shapes were talking to each other. Further in front of us, a large demon was giving orders to other smaller ones. We stopped to listen, and Jesus said, "It's an invisible army of devil forces that we don't see here now, demons, like evil spirits of disease." "Go!" said the bigger demon to the smaller imps and devils. "You do many evil things. You break houses and destroy families. You deceive weak Christians, and you teach lies and lead astray as many as you can. You will be rewarded when you return. Remember, you must beware of those who have truly accepted Jesus as their Savior. They have the power to get you out. Now walk the length of the earth. I still have a lot here and others who send them. Remember, we are the servants of the Prince of darkness and the powers of the air. At this, the evil spirits began to fly up and out of hell. The upper doors of the right leg of hell opened and closed quickly as they let them through. Also, some were going and coming back through the funnel through which we came down. I will try to describe the appearance of these evil beings. The one who spoke was very large, about the size of a full-grown bear, tawny in color, with a bat's head and eyes that were set deep in his hairy face. Hairy arms fell along his body, and fangs protruded from the hair that covered his face. Another was small like a monkey with very long arms and body hair. His face was small, and he had a pointed nose. I couldn't see his eyes at all. Another had a very large head, with large ears and a long tail, while another was as large as a horse and had smooth skin. The sight of these demons and evil spirits, and the terrible smell that came from them, made me sick in the stomach. Everywhere I looked there were only demons and devils. The greatest of them, I learned from the Lord, received his orders directly from Satan. Jesus and I walked along the path until we reached another pit. Cries of pain, unforgettable painful sounds, were everywhere. God, what's next? I thought. I passed directly by some evil spirits (they didn't seem to see us) and stopped at another lake and fire pit. In this pit was the form of a tall man. I heard him preach the gospel. I looked in amazement at Jesus waiting for an answer because He always knew my thoughts. He said, "While he was on earth, this man was a herald of the Gospel. Once he preached the truth and served Me. "I wondered what this man was doing in hell. He was six feet tall and his skeleton was a dirty, gray color like a tombstone. Parts of his clothes were still hanging on him. I wondered why the flames left those rags and did not burn them. Burnt flesh hung from him, and his skull seemed on fire. A terrible stench was coming from him. I watched as he held out his hands as if holding a book and began to read verses from the imaginary book. Again I remembered what Jesus told me; 'You will have all your senses in hell, and they will be much stronger' The man read verse after verse, and I thought it was good. Jesus said to him, "Peace, be still." Immediately, the man stopped talking and slowly turned to look at Jesus.

I saw the soul of the man inside! skeletal form. He said to Jesus, "Lord, now I will preach the truth to all people. Now, Lord, I am ready to go and tell others about this place. I know because while I was on earth, I did not even believe that it was hell, nor I didn't think You'd come again. I preached what the people wanted to hear, and I compromised the truth I was telling the people in my church. I know I didn't like anyone who was different in race or color skin, and I have caused many to fall. I have made my laws of hell and of good and evil. I know that I have caused many to stumble in Your Holy Word, and I have taken money from the poor . But let me out, I will not take money from the church. I will love people of every race and color you twisted and twisted the Holy Word of God, but you lied that you did not know the truth. The pleasures of life were more important to you than the truth. I myself came to you and wanted to return to you, but you did not want to listen. You went your way, and evil was your master. You knew the truth, but you did not want to repent and return to Me. I wanted you to repent, but you didn't want to; I waited for you. And now the judgment has been pronounced." The face of Jesus was full of mercy. I knew that if this man had obeyed the Savior's call, he would not be here now. O people, please listen and repent.

Jesus spoke again to the fallen, "Thou shouldst have spoken the truth, and would have turned many to the way of righteousness by the word of God, which says that all unbelievers shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone You knew the way of the Cross, and you knew the way of righteousness, but Satan filled your heart with lies. You should have repented, not half-heartedly. Don't lie. And now it's too late, too late." At this, the man raised his fist at Jesus and cursed Him. Yet Jesus cried out, "Father, have mercy!" With bitterness, Jesus and I went to the next pit. The fallen preacher was still angrily cursing Jesus. As we passed by the pits of fire, the hands of the lost were reaching out to Jesus, and with pleading voices they asked him to have mercy. The bones of their hands were gray-black from the burning, there was no living flesh, blood, or organs, only death and death. In me I was crying, O earth, repent! If not, you will come here. Get ready before it's too late. Late I stepped towards another pit. I felt such pity for everyone and such bitterness that I felt physically weak, and I could barely stand. Loud roars shook me. "Jesus, my insides hurt so bad," I said. A woman's voice spoke to Jesus from the pit. She was standing in the middle of the flames, and the flames completely covered her body. Her bones were full of worms and dead flesh. From the flames rising all around her, she raised her hands to Jesus, crying, "Let me out of here. I will give you my life now, Jesus. I will tell others about your forgiveness. I will testify about you. You please let me out!" Jesus said, "My Word is true, and it declares that all must repent and turn from their sins and call Me into their lives if they want to escape this place. Through My blood is forgiveness of sins. I am faithful and righteous, and I will forgive all who come to Me. And I will not cast them out." He turned, looked at the woman and said, "If you had listened to Me and come to Me and repented, I would have forgiven you." The woman asked, "Lord, is there no way out from here?" Jesus answered in a whisper, 'Woman,' He said to her, "you have been given many opportunities to repent, but you hardened your heart and you didn't want to. And you knew My Word that says 'all harlots will have their share in the lake of fire.' Jesus turned to me and said, 'This woman had sinful affairs with many men, and caused many houses to be broken. . However, I still loved her. I came to her not to condemn her, but to save her. I sent many of My servants to her to repent of her evil ways, but she did not want to. She committed many sins, yet I would have forgiven her if she had come to Me. Satan entered her, and she became full of gall and did not want to forgive anyone. She went to church only to get men, she found them and seduced them. If she had even come to Me, all her sins would have been washed away in My blood. A part of her wanted to serve Me, but you cannot serve God and Satan at the same time. Each person must choose whom he wants to serve." "Lord," I cried, "give me strength to go on!" I was shaking from head to toe with the horrors of hell. Jesus said to me, "Peace, be still." "Help me God," I cried. "Satan doesn't want us to know the truth about hell. In my wildest thoughts, I never imagined that hell could be like this. Dear Jesus, when will this end?" "My daughter," answered Jesus, "only the Father knows when the end will come. Then He spoke again and said to me, "Peace, be still." A great power came over me. Jesus and I went on among the pits. I wanted to pull every person I passed by from the fire and bring them to the feet of Jesus. I cried a lot inside! my. I was thinking to myself, I don't ever want my kids to end up here. Finally, Jesus turned to me and said softly, 'My daughter, we are going home now. Tomorrow night we will return to this part of hell.'" back home I cried without stopping. During the day I relived hell and the horrors of all the people there. I told everyone I met about hell. I told them that the pains of hell are unimaginable.

Those who read this book, I am begging you on your knees, repent of your sins. Call Jesus and ask him to save you. Call him today. Don't wait until tomorrow. Tomorrow he might not come. Time is running out fast. Fall on your knees, and be cleansed of your sins. For the Name of Jesus, be merciful and forgive one another. If you are angry with someone. Forgive him. It's not worth going to hell for an upset. Forgive as Christ forgave us of our sins. Jesus is able to keep us if we have a repentant heart and let His blood cleanse us from all our sins. Love your children, and love your neighbor as yourself.

The Lord of the churches says, Repent and be saved!"

PIT AGAIN

The next night I went again with Jesus to the right foot of hell. I saw as before the love that Jesus had for the lost souls in hell. And I felt His love for me and for all those who were on earth: "Daughter," He said to me, "it is not the will of the Father that any should perish. Satan deceives many, and they follow him. But God is forgiving. He is a God of love. If they had really come to the Father and repented, He would have forgiven them." A great tenderness I read on the face of Jesus when he said, "Father, have mercy." Again I walked among the burning pits and passed many souls in the torments I described before. God, God, what horrors I said in my mind. All the time I passed many, many souls burning in hell. All along the path, hands were reaching out to Jesus. They were only bones; and where there should have been flesh there was only a gray substance with pieces of rotting flesh, burning and hanging in rags. Inside each skeleton was the soul like a gray-dirty vapor locked in the cage of the dry skeleton for eternity. I could tell by their cries that they felt the fire, the worms, the pain, the hopelessness. Their cries filled my soul with such great grief that I cannot describe it. If only they had listened, I thought, they wouldn't be here. I knew that souls in hell have all their senses. They remembered everything they were ever told. They knew that there was no escape and that they were lost forever. However, without hope, they still hoped and cried out to Jesus for mercy. I stopped at the next pit. It was exactly like the others, and inside was a female form (I recognized her by her voice). She cried out to Jesus to deliver her from the flames. Jesus looked at her lovingly and said, "When you were on earth, I called you countless times to come to Me. I insisted that you surrender your heart and be reconciled to Me before it was too late. I visited you many times in the middle of the night to tell you of My love. I loved you, and I drew you to Me by My Spirit,' you said, 'I will follow you.' With your lips you said you loved Me, but in your heart it was not so. I knew where your heart was. Many times I sent My messengers to tell you to repent of your sins and come to Me, but you did not want to hear. I wanted to use you to help others; to help others find Me. But you wanted the world and not Me. I called you, but you did not want to hear Me, nor to repent of your sins." The woman said to Jesus, "Remember, Lord, how I went to church and was a good woman. I joined the church. I was a member of Your church.

I knew that Your calling was on my life. I knew I had to obey that call at all costs, and I obeyed," she said. Jesus said, "Woman, you are still full of lies and sin. I called you, but you did not want to listen to Me!

True, you were a member of the church, but being a member of the church does not get you to heaven. Your sins were many and you did not want to repent. You have caused others to stumble in My Word. You didn't want to forgive those who wronged you. You claimed to love Me and to serve Me when you were with the Christians; but when you were away from Christians, you lied, cheated and stole. You allowed deceiving spirits and enjoyed your double life. You knew the narrow and straight path. "And," said Jesus, "you also had a deceitful tongue; you spoke of your brothers and sisters in Christ, you judged them as if you were holier than they, while there was gross sin in your life. This I know, you did not want to listen to My merciful Spirit. You judged a person's exterior, without thinking that many of them were children in faith. You said that you loved Me from your lips, but your heart was far from Me. You knew the ways of the Lord and understood them. You played with God, but God knows all things. If you had sincerely served God, you would not be here today. You cannot serve Satan and God at the same time. Jesus turned to me and said, "Many in the last days will forsake the faith, accepting deceiving spirits and serving sin. Come out from among them, and be separate. Do not walk in the same way with them. "

As we were leaving, the woman began to curse and swear at Jesus. She howled and shouted with anger. We went further. I felt so weak. In the next pit was another skeletal form. I smelled death even before I got there. This skeleton looked just like the others. I wondered what this soul could have done, to be lost forever, without any hope, without a future, except in this terrible place. Hell is for eternity. Hearing the cries of souls in torment, I also wept. I listened as a woman spoke to Jesus from the flames of the pit. She was quoting from the Word of God. "Dear Jesus, what is she doing here?" I asked. "Listen," said Jesus. The woman said again, "Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through Him. Jesus is the Light of the World. Come to Jesus and He will save you. As she spoke many souls around listened. Some cursed and they were cursing her. And others were saying, "Is there any hope, Jesus." There were cries of bitterness. I didn't understand why that woman preach the gospel there. The Lord knew my thoughts. He said, 'Daughter, I called this woman at 30 years old to preach My Word and be a witness to the Gospel. I have called different people for different purposes of My Body. But if a man or woman, boy or girl does not want My Spirit, I will go away. Yes, she answered My call for many years, and grew in the knowledge of God. She learned My voice, and did many good things for Me. He studied the Word of God. He prayed often, and had many prayers answered. He taught many the way of holiness. She was faithful in her house. Years passed and she found out that her husband was having an affair with another woman. And even though he asked for her forgiveness, she hardened and did not want to forgive him and try to save their marriage. True, her husband was wrong, and he committed a very serious sin. But this woman knew My Word. She knew how to forgive, and she knew that there is a way out of every temptation. Her husband asked her to forgive him. She didn't want to. Instead, anger took root in her heart. Anger rose in her. He did not want to return to Me. She became more and more bitter every day, and said in her heart, Look, I serve the Lord to the end, and my husband goes with another woman! 'Do you think it's good?' she asked me. "I said, 'No, it's not good. But he came to you and repented and said he would never do it again. I said to her, 'Daughter, look within yourself, and see that you yourself have caused this. Not I, Lord, she said, 'I am the holy one, and he is the sinner. She did not want to listen to Me.

"Time went by, and she stopped praying and reading the Bible. She became angry not only with her husband, but with everyone around her. She was quoting verses, but she didn't forgive him. She didn't want to listen to Me. Her heart became bitter, and great sin entered her heart. And one day, in her anger, she killed her husband and the other woman then he took everything, and she killed herself." I looked at this soul that forsook Christ and condemned his soul to eternal fire and pain. I listened to what she said to Jesus. "I will forgive now, Lord," she said. "Let me out! Now I will listen to You. See, Lord, I preach Your Word now. In an hour the demons will come to take me to be tormented and worse. They will torture me for hours. Because I preached the Word Yours, my tortures will be more terrible. Please, God, please let me out! I cried with the woman in the pit and asked the Lord to protect me from all the bitterness of my heart.

Don't leave me to allow hatred to come into my heart, Lord Jesus," I said. "Come, let's go on, said Jesus. In the next pit was a soul of a man wrapped in a skeletal form, crying out to Jesus. "Lord," he cried, "help me to understand why I am here." Jesus said to him, "Peace, be still. You understand why you are here." "Let me out, and I'll be good," the man prayed. The Lord told him. "Even in hell you still lie." Jesus turned to me and said, "This man was 23 years old when he came here. He did not want to listen to My Gospel. He heard My Word many times and was many times in My house I drew them by My Spirit, but they liked the world and did not want to hear My call, but they did not want to surrender to Me -one day he told me, 'I will give my life to You one day, Jesus.' But that day never came. One night, after a party, he had a car accident. Satan tricked him to the end. He was killed instantly. He did not want to hear My call. And others were killed in that accident. Satan's work is to kill, steal, and destroy. If only this young man had listened! It is not the will of the Father that any should perish. Satan wanted the soul of this man, and he destroyed himself through carelessness, sin and strong drinks. Many homes and lives are destroyed every year because of alcohol.

If only people could see that the lusts and desires of this world are only for a time! If you come and get the Lord Jesus, He will free you from strong drinks. Call Jesus, He will hear you and help you. He will be your friend. Remember that He loves you, and that He also has the power to forgive your sins. Married Christians, Jesus warns you not to commit adultery. And that desiring someone of the opposite sex, even if you are not committing adultery, may be adultery in your heart. Young people, stay away from drugs and sexual sins. If somehow you have sinned, the Father forgives you. Call Him right now c/J there is still time. Find mature, strong Christians and ask them if you can talk to them about your problems. You will be glad you did this now in this world before it is too late. Satan comes as an angel of light to deceive the world. No wonder the sins of the world seem tempting to young people, even if they know God's Holy Word. Only one party, he thought, Jesus will understand. But death has no mercy. He waited too long.

I looked at the human soul, and I thought that my children will soon be 23 years old. Oh, Lord, make them serve You! I know that many of you reading this have loved ones, maybe children, who you would not want to go to hell. Tell them about Jesus before it's too late. Tell them to repent of their sins and that God will forgive them and make them holy. The young man's cries haunted me for days. I will never forget his cries of regret. I remember the flesh hanging on the burning bones. I can't forget the rot, the smell of death, the holes where the eyes once were, the gray-dirty soul and the worms that crawled between the bones. The young man's form raised his hands to Jesus in prayer as we headed for the next pit. "Dear God," I prayed, "give me strength to go on."

I heard a woman's voice crying loudly in despair. The cries of the dead could be heard everywhere. Soon we arrived at the pit where the woman was. She prayed with all her soul to Jesus to take her out of there. "Lord," she said, "have I not been here long enough? My torture is more than I can bear. Please, Lord, let me out!" Cries shook her form, and there was such pain in her voice.... I knew she was in terrible pain. I said, "Jesus, can't you do anything?" Then Jesus said to the woman: While you were on earth, I constantly called you to Me. I asked you persistently to be reconciled with Me, to forgive others, to do what is good and to avoid sin. From time to time I even visited you in the middle of the night and drew you with My Spirit. With your lips you said you loved Me, but your heart was far from Me. Didn't you know that nothing can be hidden from God? You deceived others, but you could not deceive Me. Yet I sent many to tell you to repent, but you did not listen. You didn't hear, you didn't want to see, and in anger you rejected them. I placed you in a place where you could hear My Word. But you didn't want to give my heart to Me. You were not sorry, nor were you ashamed of what you were doing. You hardened your heart and rejected Me. Now you are lost forever. But now you have to surrender your heart to Me. At this, she looked at Jesus and began to swear and curse God. I felt the presence of evil spirits and knew that they were the ones cursing and cursing. How sad it is to be lost forever in hell! resist the devil as long as you can, and he will flee from you. Jesus said, 'The world and all that is in it will pass away, but my Words will not pass away.

THE TUNNEL OF FEAR

I tried to remember the sermons I had heard about hell. But I have never heard such terrible things as the Lord showed me here. Hell is infinitely worse than anyone can think or imagine. It pains me to know that the souls now in torment in hell will be there for eternity. There is no way out. I am determined to do everything in my power to save souls from those horrors. I have to preach the gospel to everyone I meet, because hell is a scary place, and this is a true testimony, you know what I'm saying? If sinners do not repent and believe the gospel, they will surely end up here. Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and call on Him to save you from sin. Read the Gospel according to John, chapters 3 and 14. And please read this book cover to cover to better understand hell and the afterlife. As you read, pray that Jesus will come into your heart, and wash away your sins before it is too late.

I walked with Jesus through hell again. The path was burnt, dry, cracked and with barren soil. I looked down at the line of pits as far as the eye could see. I was very tired. My heart, even my spirit, was broken by all that I had seen and heard, and I knew that there was still much to come.

Jesus, give me strength to go on," I cried.

Jesus was walking in front as the leader, and I was very close behind Him. I was full of pain because of all the horrible things I had seen. I wondered to myself if people would believe me. I looked to my left, to my right, behind me everywhere, as far as I could see there were only pits of fire. I screamed out loud in a moment of terror. The horror and reality of what I was seeing was too much for me. O earth, REPENT! I shouted. Deep sobs shook my spirit as I walked on with Jesus. I was wondering what would happen next. I was thinking what my family would be doing, and my friends...Oh, how I loved them! I remembered how I had sinned before turning to Jesus, and I thanked God that I turned before it was too late. Jesus said, 'Now we will enter a tunnel that will take us into the belly of Hell. Hell is shaped like a human body lying in the center of the earth. The body is lying on its back, with both hands and legs outstretched. As I have a body of believers, so hell has a body of sin and death. As the body of Christ is built up daily, so the body of hell is built up daily.' On our way to the tunnel, I passed the burning pits, with the cries and groans of the condemned ringing in my ears. Many were crying out for Jesus as I passed. beside them Others were trying to climb out of the pit of fire to touch Him, but they could not. Too late! too late! cried my heart. The pain was always visible on the face of Jesus throughout the journey. Looking at the fire pits, I remembered the many times we used to make fires in our back garden, and how the red hot embers looked like they wouldn't go out for hours. Much more was what I saw here in hell. I was very pleased to enter the tunnel. I was thinking, the Tunnel can't be as bad as the pits. But how wrong I was! As soon as I got inside I saw terrible snakes, big rats and many evil spirits, all fleeing from the presence of the Lord. The snakes hissed at us and the rats rattled. There were also many demonic noises. Vipers and black shadows surrounded us from all sides. Jesus was the only light that could be seen in the darkness. I stayed as close as I could to Him.

Little devils and devils were on all sides of the tunnel, and all of them were walking somewhere towards the exit of the tunnel. I later learned that these evil spirits were coming to the surface of the earth to fulfill the bonds of Satan. Sensing my fear in this dark, wet, dirty place, Jesus said, "Don't be afraid; soon we will reach the end of the tunnel. I have to show you these things. Come, follow me." Huge snakes were crawling by us. Some of the snakes were over a meter wide and about eight feet long. There were foul smells everywhere. "Soon we will be in the belly of hell. This part of hell is 17 miles (29 km) high and three miles (5 km) around like a circle." Jesus gave me the exact measurements. I will try to write what I saw and heard to the best of my ability. and my ability. I do this for the glory of the Father, for the glory of the Holy Spirit. I knew that Jesus shows me all these things so that I can warn the people of the world and avoid hell with everything price. My dears, if you are reading this and you do not know Jesus, stop right now, repent of your sins, and invite Him to be your Savior.

ACTIVITY IN HELL

Ahead of us we saw a faint yellow light. Jesus and I walked out of the tunnel of fear and now stood on a dirty ledge looking into the belly of hell. As far as we could see, there was great activity in the midst (or belly) of hell. We stopped and Jesus said: "I will take you through the belly of hell, and I will reveal many things to you. Come, follow me." We both moved on. Jesus said, "There are many terrors before us. They are not the product of a sick imagination but are real. Be careful to tell your readers that demonic powers are real. Also tell them that Satan is real, and that the powers of darkness are real. But tell them not to despair, for if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves and pray and turn from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven and heal the earth and their bodies. Just as heaven is real—so is hell." God wants you to know about hell and to save you from that place. God wants you to know that there is a way out. This way is Jesus Christ, the Savior of your soul. Remember that only those whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life will be saved. We reached where the first activity was in the belly of hell. It was on the right side of the entrance where we entered and up on a small hill in a dark corner of hell. I remembered the Lord's words when he told me, "Sometimes it will seem to you that I have left you, but it will not be so. Remember that I have all power in heaven and on earth. Sometimes the evil spirits and the lost souls will not see us nor know that we are here. What you will see is real. These things are happening now and will continue to happen until death and hell are cast into the lake of fire.

Reader, be sure that your name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

In front of us we could hear voices and cries of souls in torment. I went to the hill and looked beyond it. A light illuminated the place so I could see clearly. 'Cries such as I never believed or thought were possible filled the air. They were the cries of a man. "Listen to Me," said Jesus. "What you will see and hear now is true. Pay attention ministers of the Gospel, because these words are worthy of belief and true. Wake up evangelists.. preachers, and teachers of My Word, and all of you who are called to proclaim The Gospel (of Jesus Christ. If you sin, repent, or you too will perish. I got about three or four meters from this activity. I saw small figures dressed in dark colors marching around an object that looked like with a box. I saw that the box was a coffin and that the figures marching around it were real coffins, and there were 12 demons surrounding it, they were laughing a sharp arrow in his hand, which they kept sticking into the coffin through small holes that were sprinkled on the outside. There was a feeling of great fear in the atmosphere, and I trembled at what was before me, because he said, "My daughter, there are many souls here in torment, and many kinds of punishment for these souls. But it is an even greater punishment for those who once preached the Gospel and fell into sin, or for those who did not listen to God's call for their lives." I heard such a heartbreaking cry that it filled my heart with "No hope, no hope," he cried. It was an endless cry of regret. "Oh, how terrible!" I said. "Come," said Jesus, "let us go nearer." With that, He approached the coffin and looked inside. I followed him and looked too. It seemed that the evil spirits could not see us. A dirty gray mist filled the inside of the coffin. It was the soul of man. As I watched, the demons stuck their arrows into the soul of the man in the coffin. I will never forget the suffering of this soul. I cried out to Jesus, "Let him out, Lord; let him out." The torture of this soul was a terrible sight. If only he could break free. I pulled Jesus' hand and asked him to let the man out of the coffin.

Jesus said, "My daughter, peace, be still."

As Jesus spoke, the man saw us. He said, "Lord, Lord, let me out! Have mercy!" I looked down and saw a bloody mess. before my eyes was a soul, inside the soul was a human heart, and from it gushed blood. the stabs of the arrows really pierced his heart. "I will serve you now, Lord." He begged for mercy, "Please let me out!" I knew this man felt every arrow that pierced his heart. "Day and night he is tortured," said the Lord. "He was put here by Satan, and Satan is torturing him." The man cried, "Lord, I will preach the true gospel from now on! I will talk about sin and hell. But please help me out of here!" Jesus said, "This man was a preacher of the Word of God. There was a time when he served Me with all his heart and led many people to salvation. Some of those saved by him still serve Me today, after so many years. "The lust of the earthly nature and the deception of riches made him go astray. He allowed Satan to gain control over him. He had a big church, a nice car, and a big income. He began to steal from the church's money. He began to learn lies. At most he told half lies and half truths. Don't let me correct it. "I sent my messengers to him, to tell him to repent and preach the truth, but he loved the pleasures of this world more than life with God. He knew that he was not allowed to preach or teach any other doctrine than the truth revealed in the Bible. But before he died, he said that the baptism with the Holy Spirit was a lie and that those who claim to have the Holy Spirit are hypocrites. They said that you can be drunk and go to heaven without repentance. "He was saying that God doesn't send anyone to hell because He is too good to do that. He caused many good people to fall from God's grace. He even said that he didn't need me because he was like a god He went so far as to teach this false doctrine. Yet I continued to love him. It would have been better for him not He would never have known Me unless he had known Me and then turned his back on Me," said the Lord. "If only he had listened to You, Lord!" I cried crying "If only he cared about his soul, and the souls of others." "He did not listen to me. When I called him he did not want to hear me. They liked the easy life. I called him countless times and urged them to repent, but he did not want to return to me . One day he was killed and immediately came here. Now Satan is torturing him because he once preached My word and saved souls for My kingdom." I looked at the demons who continued their march around the coffin. The man's heart was beating, and real blood was flowing from it. I will never forget his cries of pain and grief. Jesus looked at the man in the coffin with great pity and said, "The blood of many is on this man's hands. Many of them are in torment right now. With sad hearts, I walked with Jesus on. As I walked, I saw a another group of demons coming towards the coffin. They were about a meter tall, dressed in black clothes, and with black hoods covering their faces. They took turns in torturing this soul. I thought how the pride in each of us sometimes makes us not want to admit our mistakes and ask for forgiveness. We refuse to repent and humble ourselves, and we act as if we alone are always right. But listen, souls, hell is real. Please don't go to that place. I went further with Jesus, to a small opening with stones thrown all over the surface. From place to place there were low walls...made of earth and stone. A light shone brightly in an area about the size of an amphitheater. Jesus said to me, My child is looking at the works of Satan." This is what I saw and heard. The sound of delightful music filled the air, and in the middle of the amphitheater, on a well-lit floor, were five lovely women dancing. They all They were standing in a line and moving at the same time, they were laughing. It seemed like a beauty contest. In fact, they were so attractive, they seemed unreal - I thought, How can something so beautiful be in hell? The clothes the women were wearing were wonderful and very expensive. They looked like princesses, without a single mistake. Everything seemed perfect. I wondered what they were doing in hell. They looked neither evil nor sinful. But then I noticed that they were dancing to the rhythm of the fire and that the flames were moving up and down their perfect bodies. They laughed as the flames engulfed their bodies. They were not burned, nor did they feel any pain. I watched as the music suddenly stopped and the amphitheater became silent. The line of lovely women stood motionless and stared at someone approaching. An evil presence filled the room—an evil greater than I had ever felt. And then I saw the back of a dark person all dressed in darkness. He had his back to me, and was dressed in a long black robe and a cape draped over his shoulders. There were two men with him. They had their backs to me and to Jesus. I knew they couldn't see us. "Look, said Jesus. I knew the black presence was Satan, for now the beautiful women began to worship him and chant, Long live Satan long live Satan!" Satan began to speak, saying to them, My girls, you have obeyed my commands and now you are ready to walk the earth and do my will. I have given you the powers of darkness, and you have all the resources of hell to help you in your work." Satan laughed evilly and said, Now, to remind you of my power, I will demonstrate to you what will happen to you if you disobey my orders to the smallest detail." Satan twirled his hands in front of them, and they began to cry to him, Oh, please, Satan, we will obey you and do what you command. Please, Satan, do not torture us!" But Satan would not listen. I watched in awe as the lovely bodies of these women began to turn into a dead, gray hellish flesh. What was once admirable perfection has now become repulsive in ugliness.

The lovely bodies disintegrated and left the hideous form of death. Their forms were filled with demons and evil spirits, and great, long snakes climbed and coiled over their stomachs. Jesus, what do these mean?' I asked. Jesus did not answer me. "Satan, please give us back our beautiful bodies!" the women were begging. "We will listen to you.' Laughter filled the air again as Satan, with a wave of his hands, turned the ugly forms back into the lovely young women. 'Listen to me and obey me,' Satan said to them. 'Do everything I tell you, and you will keep these nice bodies. Now watch, I will show you where you will do my demonic works. At this, the man on Satan's left raised his hand, and a bright light appeared on the eastern wall. There was a movie screen on the wall, and images of common places appeared on the screen. Satan raised his hands towards the film on the screen, and the scenes began to move. A street, a nightclub, a shop, a bakery, a convenience store, a bank, a wedding, an auction, a church, and a town hall appeared. All the places he showed were ordinary places, and Satan showed them many more places like these on the screen. You will deceive many and cause many to fall away from the truth. You will go into all the earth and do my work and come back to me with reports. If you need help, I will send it to you. You have been well trained in the use of demonic powers. Your mission is to bring me souls. You can bait them with witchcraft, false religions and occult cults. You can lead weak Christians into the sins of the flesh. You can plant seeds of doubt about the truth of God's Word. Turn men and women away from the gospel of Jesus Christ, and destroy them as you can. A table was brought before Satan. There were some papers on it. He took them in his hand and began to read many things from them to the women. Certain things I understood, and others not. Choose one soul a week, continued Satan, and work with that soul all week. I give you three weeks to corrupt a soul, and then you report back to me. You will lack for nothing, because you have abundant riches at your disposal. Do not forget that one soul you win can in return win many others for me. Work hard and I will repay you. If you don't listen to me, I will reveal your true self to the world. Don't forget that you have the power to transform into any form you want. I will send you everything you want to be successful. Now, go and do my work, and come back in a month. Will they defeat God? cried Satan again, twirling his hands again, and the wonderful women began to rise toward the earth. I looked and only the fire remained where the women had been. I watched as Satan said to the two men, Look! and pointed to the wall where the screen was. "I hate God," he said, "and they will do a very good work for me. On the screen I saw that the wonderful women were now in the cities, shops, churches and bars doing their evil work. These were deceiving spirits, demons released from hell on earth, and people didn't know they were demons.

Demonic powers are real, I thought. They are really here to fool anyone they can fool. They cheat, lie and steal to make a disciple for Satan. The screen suddenly disappeared, and I saw how Satan and his two men disappeared in a cloud of smoke. Then Jesus showed me a gigantic clock that spanned the whole world. I heard him knocking. The minutes were approaching 12 o'clock. It was 12 o'clock without 3 minutes. Unnoticed, the minutes were moving towards the exact time. As they moved, their ticking grew louder and louder until it seemed to fill the whole earth. God spoke like a trumpet, and His voice was like many waters. Listen to what the Spirit says to the churches, He said. Be ready, because when you don't even think, I will come again. I hear the clock ticking. It is 12 o'clock. The Bridegroom is coming for His Bride. Are you ready for the coming of Christ, my friend? Or will you be one of those who will say, Not today Lord? Do you want to call on Him and be saved? Do you want to surrender your heart to Him now? Don't forget, Jesus can and will save you from all evil if you call him today and repent. Pray for your family. and for those you love to come to Christ before it is too late. Listen to what Jesus says, I will protect you from evil. I will guard you in all your ways. I will save your loved ones. Call Me Today and You Shall Live With many tears, I pray that all of you who will read this book will realize the truth before it is too late. Hell is for eternity. I try my best to tell you everything I saw and heard. I know these things to be true. As you read the following, I pray that you will repent and receive Jesus Christ as your personal Savior.

I heard the Lord say, "It is time to go; we will return tomorrow."

THE BELLY OF HELL

The next night I went with Jesus to hell again. The first time I entered a large expanse. As far as I could see, demonic activities were going on everywhere. A large number of these activities were happening right around us. Not more than 2-3 meters from where we were sitting, I noticed a strange activity -- strange especially in that many demonic forms and unclean spirits were rushing in and out of that particular place. The scene was more like a scene from a horror movie. As far as the eye could see, there were souls in torture, and the devil and my angels were busy at their work. The semi-darkness was pierced by cries of agony and despair. Jesus said, "Daughter, Satan is both a deceiver on earth and a tormentor of souls in hell. Many of the demonic powers you see here go from time to time to earth to strike, mislead and deceive . "I will show you things that have never before been discovered in such detail. Some of the things you will see will happen now, but others will happen in the future." Again I looked ahead. The earth was a lifeless light brown, without grass or anything green. Everything was dead or dying. Certain places were cold and wet, while others were hot and dry. And all the time there was a putrid stench of burning or decaying flesh that blended with the smells of leftovers, stale trash, and mold. "Satan uses many trapdoors and traps to deceive God's people," said Jesus. "In the course of our many journeys to hell, I will show you many of the devil's deceptions and tricks." We had only gone a few yards when we saw a long black object. It seemed to move up and down, or to swell. And every time it moved it gave off a terrible stench—a stench worse than the usual odors that filled the air of hell to explain as accurately as possible what I saw. As that large, black, elongated object continued to contract and swell and give off offensive odors, I noticed something like manes, dark in color, coming out of I realized that it was a big and black heart, and that there were many entrances in it. A premonition of death came over me and said, No- be afraid.

This is the heart of hell. Later we will also go into it, but now we must go into the annex cells of hell. The annex cells of hell were in a circle in the belly of hell. The cells were 17 miles high. I looked up, and saw that there was a great brown trench between the cells and the bottom or belly of hell. It seemed to me that the ditch was about six feet deep, and I wondered how I would be able to cross it. I didn't even think about it, because we were high above on a protrusion of the lip of the first row of cells. That lip was like a link around the cells and it was also like a vantage point from which one could see the entire center of hell. Jesus said, These things are worthy of belief and real".. Death and hell will one day be cast into the lake of fire. Until then, this is the place that holds hell. These cells will remain here, full of sinful souls, tormented and in torment. "I gave My life so that you would not have to come here. I knew these horrors were real, but My Father's mercy is just as real. If you will allow Him, He will forgive you. call- Him in My Name today."

CELLS FROM HELL

Together with Jesus, I was sitting on the edge of the first row of cells. The lip was about a meter wide. I looked up, and as far as I could see, there were other lips in a large circle around what appeared to be a gigantic abyss. Alongside this lip, or trough, were cells that were dug into the ground. These cells (like prison cells) were all in a row, separated by only half a meter. Jesus said, "This cell block is 17 miles high, starting at the bottom of hell. In these cells were many souls who were into witchcraft or the occult. Some were sorcerers, mediums, drug dealers, idol worshipers, or evil people with divination spirits. These are the souls who have brought the greatest iniquity against God. Many of them have been here for hundreds of years. These are the ones who did not want to repent, especially those who deceived people and they have gone astray from God's path. These souls have done great wickedness against God and His people. Following the Lord around that path, I have looked down into the center of hell, where there was the most activity. A low light. it filled the center all the time, and I could make out the movement of many shapes. As far as we could see, there were cells in front of us. I thought to myself that surely the torture in the cells could not be more horrible than that in the pits. But all around us we could hear the cries and moans and screams of the convicts in the cells. I felt sick. A great bitterness seized my heart. Jesus said to me, I have not let you hear these cries until now, daughter. But now I want to show you that Satan comes to steal, kill, and destroy. Here in hell there are different tortures for different souls. Satan administers these tortures until Judgment Day, when death and hell are cast into the lake of fire. Also a lake of fire passes through hell all the time." Walking along that lip, the sounds grew even louder. Terrible screams came from inside the cells. Walking close to Jesus, He stopped at the head of the third cell. A light illuminated the interior of the cell. In the cell was an old woman sitting in a rocking chair, rocking and crying as if her heart had broken. I don't know why, but I was shocked to see that this woman was a real person with a body. The cell was completely empty except for the rocking armchair. The walls of the cell were made of light colored clay, built in the ground. The front door occupied the entire face of the cell. It was made of black metal, had metal bars and a lock on top. The bars were spaced apart, so Jesus and I had a full view of the entire cell. The woman's color was gray - flesh mixed with a greenish color. She rocked back and forth. As she rocked, tears rolled down her cheeks. I knew from the agony in her expression that she was in great pain and suffering from an invisible torture. I wonder what her fault was to be incarcerated here. Suddenly, right before my eyes, the woman began to change her appearance first into a very old man, then into a young woman, then into a middle-aged woman, and then back into the woman old woman I saw for the first time. Shocked, I watched as she went through these forms, one after another. When she saw Jesus, she cried out, Lord, have mercy on me! Let me out of this place of torture. She leaned forward in her chair, and reached out to Jesus to touch Him, but she could not.

The changes continued. Even her clothes changed, so she was dressed sometimes as a man, sometimes as a young girl, then as a young woman, and then again as an old woman. All these changes took place in just a few minutes. I asked Jesus, "Why, Lord?" Again she cried, "Oh, Lord, let me out of here now, before they come back." Now he was standing in front of the cell, his hands tightly gripped by the bars. He said, "I know, Lord, that Your love is real. I know that Your love is true. Let me out!" As the woman screamed in terror, I saw something begin to tear the flesh from her body. She is not what she seems to be," said the Lord. The woman sat down again in the armchair, and began to rock. But now only a skeleton sat in the armchair - a skeleton with a gray vapor inside. Where there was body clothed only a few minutes before, there were now blackened bones, and empty eye sockets. The woman's soul cried out to Jesus in repentance. "On earth," said Jesus, "this woman was a witch and a Satan worshipper. Not only did she practice witchcraft, but she also taught witchcraft to others. From her childhood, her family was involved in the black arts. They loved darkness more than light. "Innumerable times I called her to repentance. She mocked Me saying, I am glad to serve Satan. I will serve only him. She * rejected the truth, and did not want to repent of her evil. She deviated many of My people from the Lord, some of them are in hell with her today. If she had repented, I would have saved her and many of her family, but she would not listen he deceived this woman into believing that she would receive a kingdom of her own as a reward for her service to him. He told her that she would never die, but that she would have a life with him for eternity. She died glorifying Satan and came here and asked Him about her kingdom. Satan, the Father of Lies, laughed in his face and said, You thought I would share my kingdom with you? This is your kingdom.' And he locked her in this cell and tortures her day and night." On earth," said Jesus, "this woman taught many witches, both white witches and black witches, to work their magic. One of her magic tricks was to change from a young woman to a middle-aged woman, then to an old woman - even an old man. It was funny in those days to transform and scare the lesser witches with her magic. But now she suffers the pains of hell, and her flesh is torn from her at every transformation. Now she can't control herself, she's constantly changing, but her true form is this gray mist inside her skeleton."

Satan uses her for his evil purposes and mocks her. She is often brought before him to torture her for his pleasure. I have called her many times, and I would have saved her; but she didn't want Me. Now she begs for mercy and forgiveness, but it is too late. She is now lost, without any hope." I looked at this woman lost forever, in suffering and pain, and though she was a wicked woman, my heart was torn with pity. "Lord, how terrible!" I said in tears. Just then, as if Jesus had not been present, a dirty brown demon with broken wings the size and shape of a large bear came to the front of her cell and opened it with some keys. He was making a lot of noise, as if to scare her away. The woman screamed in anticipated terror as he attacked her and dragged her out of the cell.

Jesus said, "This demon torments her often." I watched as she was carried out of the cell and taken somewhere. "Dear God," I asked, "is there nothing we can do for her?" I felt so much pity for her.

"It's too late!" Jesus answered. "It's too late."

THE HORRORS OF HELL

I understood why the people in these cells in the belly of hell were different from those in other places of torture. However, there was much that I did not understand. I simply listened to Jesus and recorded everything I heard and saw for the glory of God. As far as I could see, the cells looked like an endless circle. In every cell there is only one soul. Moans, wails, sighs and cries came from the cells we passed by. We had not gone very far when Jesus stopped at the head of another cell. As I watched, a light appeared. (Jesus made the light.) I was sitting, and I looked at the soul that I knew was in great terror. It was another woman, and she had a pale gray complexion. Her flesh was dead, and the parts that were rotten fell from the bones. Her bones were burned to black, and she had only bits and pieces of rags on her. Worms were crawling inside and outside her flesh and bones. A terrible smell filled the cell. Like the woman before her, she sat in a rocking chair. She was holding a rag doll. As she rocked, she cried and clutched the rag doll to her chest. Deep sobs shook her body, and wailing cries came from her cell. Jesus told me. "And she was a servant of Satan. She sold her soul to him, and while she was on earth she practiced every kind of evil. Witchcraft is real, said Jesus. "This woman learned and practiced witchcraft and turned many to the path of sin. Those who were teachers of witchcraft received special attention and had greater power from Satan than those who merely practiced it. She was a diviner, an astrologer, and a medium for her master. She gained great favor with Satan for all the evils she committed. She knew how to use the powers of darkness for herself and for Satan. She went to the devil's worship services and glorified Satan. She was a powerful woman to him. I wondered how many souls she had deceived for Satan. I looked at this bony pit of a soul, crying over a rag doll with only a few dirty rags, sorrow filled my heart, and tears filled my eyes. She held the rag doll tightly as if she could help it, or maybe she could. The smell of death filled the place. Then I saw how she also started to change like the other woman. First she changed into an old woman from the 1930s and then into a young woman from today. One after another, she made her fantastic transformation right before our eyes. "This woman," said Jesus, "was a preacher of Satan. Just as the true gospel is preached by a real preacher, so Satan has his false preachers. She had the most powerful satanic power, that which it is obtained only in exchange for its soul. Satan's evil gifts are exactly like the other side of the coin that Jesus distributes to believers. This is the power of darkness."

These workers of Satan work in the occult, witchcraft shops, palmistry and many other avenues. A medium of Satan is a powerful satanic worker. These individuals are deceived up to; end and are totally sold to Satan. Some workers of darkness cannot speak directly to Satan until they have a medium to speak for them. They bring human and animal sacrifices to the devil. Many people sell their souls to Satan. They prefer to serve him instead of Me. Their choice is death as long as they do not repent of their sins and call upon Me. I am faithful, and I will save them from their sins. Some sell their souls to Satan thinking they will live forever. But they will die a fearful death. Satan still believes that he can overthrow God and spoil God's plans, but he was defeated at the Cross. I took the keys from Satan, and I have all power in heaven and on earth. After this woman died, she went straight to hell. The demons brought her to Satan, where she angrily asked why the demons had power over her, because on earth she thought she controlled them. There they let her rule. She also asked Satan about the kingdom promised to her. Satan continued to lie to her even after her death on earth. He told her that he would bring her back to life and use her in her practices again. By deceit she had brought him many souls, so the lies sounded quite plausible. Finally, Satan laughed and mocked her. He told her, I cheated and used you all those years. I will never give you my kingdom. The devil twirled his hands in front of her, and it seemed that all her flesh was tearing from her bones. She screamed in pain as a large black book was brought to Satan. He opened it and ran his finger down the pages until he found her name. 'Oh yes,' said Satan, 'you have served me well on earth. You brought me more than 500 souls.' Then he lied to her saying, 'Your punishment will not be as bad as the others. He let out a devilish laugh like a coot. Satan stretched out his finger to the woman, and a mighty wind filled the place. From it came a sound like the crack of lightning. 'Ha ha,' said the devil, 'take your kingdom if you can.' Then an unseen force knocked her to the ground. You will serve me here too,' Satan laughed as she tried to stand up. The woman screamed in pain as her flesh continued to be ripped from her bones by the demons. She was dragged back to her cage. She remembered Satan's promises. He told him that he would have power.

He told her that she would never die, he told her that he had all power over death and life, and she believed him, he was told that Satan could stop anything that could have killed her. Satan told him many lies and promised him many things. Jesus said, "I have come to save all people. I want all the lost to repent and call on My name. It is not My will that any should perish, but that all should have eternal life. Unfortunately, most they do not repent of their sins, and they go to hell. But the way to heaven is the same for all people. You must be born again to enter the kingdom of God. You must come before the Father in My Name and repent of your sins. You must give your heart to God and serve Him. 'Daughter,' continued Jesus, 'what I will reveal to you is even more horrible. I know it will hurt you. I also want the world to hear and find out what the Spirit says to the churches. "In these cells, as far as the eye can see, are souls in torment and torture. Whenever the cells are full, hell widens to receive more souls. You have all your senses in hell. And if you have If you were blind on earth, you will be blind in hell. If you had only one arm on earth, you will have only one arm in hell." I must tell you to REPENT, because hell is a terrible place, a scary place, a place of terrible sadness, and eternal weeping of regrets. Listen, please believe what I'm telling you, because it's true. This was so difficult for me that I was sick many times during the preparation of this report.

I have seen things in hell that are too horrible to tell. Much more terrible than the wailing of tortures, the stench of rotting flesh, and the terrible fires of hell with its deep pits. I also saw things that God did not allow me to write. When you die on earth, if you are born again by the Spirit of God, your soul goes to heaven. If you are a sinner when you die, you will immediately go to burning hell. Demons with strong chains will drag your soul through the gates of hell, where you will be thrown into pits and tortured. In time you will be brought before Satan. You know and feel all the things that happen to you in hell. Jesus told me that in hell there is a place called 'party center.' Souls locked in pits have no access there. He also told me, for although the tortures are different for different souls, they are all burned with fire. The center of the party is shaped like a circus arena. Several people who are to be the object of the fun, are brought to the center of the party in the middle of the arena. These are people who consciously served Satan on earth. They are those, who with their free will, . chosen to follow Satan instead of God, around the edges of the arena were other souls, except those in the pits.

Those in the middle of the arena had been leaders in the occult before their deaths. They were mediums, fortune tellers, star readers, telepathic mind readers, witches and wizards all who consciously chose to serve Satan. When they lived on earth, they deceived and caused many to follow Satan and sin. Those who were deceived and who were driven to sin came and tortured their deceivers. One by one, they were allowed to torture them in such a torture, their bones were broken and buried in different parts of hell. The soul was literally stripped and dismembered, and its parts were scattered throughout hell as in a demonic hunting contest. The mutilated and dismembered souls suffered indescribable pain. Those outside the arena could throw stones at those inside the arena. Any method imaginable was allowed. Tortured souls cried out for death, but this was eternal death. Satan was the one who gave orders for all this to take place. This is the center of his party. Jesus said, 'I took the keys of the abode of the dead from Satan many years ago. I came and opened these cells and let My people out. Because during the Old Testament before I gave my life on the cross, the abode of the dead was located close to hell. These cells were once in the abode of the dead; now Satan uses them for his diabolical purposes and much more. "O reader, will you repent of your sins before it is eternally too late? For all will come before Me in judgment. Paradise in the abode of the dead was moved from its position near hell when I died and rose again by the power of God, My Father. Again, I tell you that these cells which are 17 miles high, serve as a prison for those who were once workers of darkness for Satan, those who have partaken of any sin that has to do with dealing with demonic powers, with the occult and who worshiped Satan. Jesus said, "Come, I want to show you something."

Suddenly we were half a mile in the air, in the middle of the belly of hell, and in the center of the 17 mile high cell block. You felt as if you were in a well where you could not see above or below because of the darkness. A yellowish light began to fill that place. I was holding on to the hand of Jesus. Dear God, I asked, "why are we here?" Suddenly there came a wind with the force of a hurricane and a hissing sound. Strong waves of fire began to rise up the edge of the cell walls, burning everything in their path. The flames reached every cell and produced cries of pain and misery of all mercy. Although Jesus and I were not touched by the flames, fear rose in my heart as I saw the lost souls running to the back of the small cells, trying to find a hiding place. To our left we heard a devilish sound. I looked, and Satan was standing with his back to us, all on fire. But he was not burned rather, he was the cause of the fire. Now he stood engulfed in fire, enjoying the cries of these poor lost souls. When Satan moved his arms, powerful balls of fire shot out of him. Terrifying screams and loud cries of pain came from the cells. The souls within were burned alive by this fire which was hotter than the lake of fire and yet they could not die. Demons, too, were associated with laughter when Satan went from cell to cell and tortured the lost. Jesus said, 'Satan feeds on evil. They rise in pain and suffering and gain strength from it.' I looked at Satan as a reddish yellow flame with brown edges wrapped around him. A swift and wild wind blew his clothes, which were not even burning. The smell of burning flesh filled the air, and I realized again that the horrors of hell were real, and they could not burn. Though I could only see his back, I could hear his devilish laughter everywhere as Satan descended in a cloud of smoke, trailing the stream of fire after him to the top of hell's belly. I listened as he turned and in a loud voice announced that if these souls did not worship him, he would give them a shift into the "party center." "No, please, Satan, we will worship," they cried in unison, and began to bow down to the devil. And the more they worshiped him, the greater he was his thirst for adoration Louder and louder rang the sounds of their glory, until the roof-bricks of hell rang with vibration. Jesus said, "All these who occupy the cells of hell heard the true gospel when they were alive on earth. My salvation was offered many times. Many times My Spirit drew them, but they did not want to hear or come. to Me that they may be saved." As Jesus was telling me this, Satan was saying to his subjects, "Ha -ha, this is your kingdom - the only kingdom you will ever have, my kingdom covers all the earth and the world below. I heard him cry, "This is your life forever." While cries of regret could be heard from the burning cells. Jesus said, "My salvation is free. Whosoever will, come and be saved from this place of punishment. I will not cast them out. If you were a witch or a wizard, even if you made a pact in writing with the devil, My power will crush him and My blood will save you. I will take the devilish curse from your life and redeem you from hell. Give me your heart and I will set you free."

THE HEART OF HELL

During the night I went with Jesus to hell. During the day, hell was before my eyes. I tried to tell others about what I was seeing, but they didn't believe me. I felt very alone, and only with God's grace could I move on. All glory belongs to the Lord Jesus Christ. The next night I went with Jesus to hell again. We were walking on the edge of the belly of hell. I recognized certain parts of what I had seen before. The same rotting flesh, the same devilish stench, the same decay, and hot air was everywhere. I was already very tired. Jesus knew my thoughts and said, "I will never leave you or forsake you. I know you are tired, but I will strengthen you. The touch of Jesus strengthened me, and I started forward. Before us I saw a large object and black, almost as big as a soccer ball that seemed to be moving up and down. I remembered being told that this was the 'heart of hell. Coming out of this black heart were what looked like big arms and manes were coming out of her and out of hell and above the earth. I wondered if these manes were the ones the Bible was talking about. All around the heart was dry and brown.

About 30 feet in every direction, the ground was scorched and dried to a rust-brown color. The heart was the blackest black, but yet another color like the scales of a snake's skin was interspersed among the black. A sickening stench rose with every heartbeat. It moved like a real heart and beat up and down. A fiendish force field surrounded her. I looked at this diabolical heart in great wonder and wondered what its purpose was. Jesus said, 'These branches, which look like the arteries of a heart, are channels that go through the earth and spit out evil. These are the manes that Dania saw, and they represent the evil kingdoms on earth. Some were, some will be, and some are now. evil kings will arise, and the Antichrist will rule over many peoples, places and things. If it will be possible, even the chosen ones will be deceived by him. Many will deny themselves and worship the Beast and his image. "Out of these main branches and horns, other smaller branches will grow. Through them will come demons, evil spirits and all kinds of diabolical forces. They will be spread over the earth and instructed by Satan to do many devilish works. These kingdoms and devilish forces will listen to Beast, and many will follow him in destruction. Here in the heart of hell all these things begin.

These are the words Jesus spoke to me. He told me to write them in a book and tell the world. These words are true. These revelations were given to me by the Lord Jesus Christ so that we all may know and understand the works of Satan and the diabolical schemes he plans for the future. Jesus said, 'Follow me.' We climbed a flight of stairs to the heart, and a door opened before us. There was utter darkness in the heart, and there was a stench so terrible that we could hardly see it through the darkness I stepped very close to Him. And then, suddenly, the impossible happened. I was all alone in the heart of hell, and death seized me in its clutches. I cried out to Jesus, 'Where art thou?' I wail, 'I've got to get out of here!'

I started running in the dark. Touching the walls, they seemed to breathe, moving in the opposite direction of my hands. And suddenly I wasn't alone anymore. I heard the laughter of two demons, surrounded by a small yellow light, they came and grabbed both of my hands. They quickly grabbed some chains from my hands and began to pull me down into the depths of my heart. I cried out for Jesus, but there was no answer. I cried and fought with all my might, but they dragged me as if I had resisted nothing. The deeper I went into the heart, I felt a horrible pain as if some force was rubbing against my body. It seemed like all the flesh on me was tearing away. I screamed in pain. My captors dragged me to a cell and threw me inside. When they locked the door, I cried even harder. They laughed mockingly and said, It does you no good to cry. When your time comes, you will be brought before our master. He will torture you for his pleasure. My body was soaked with the stench of death of the heart. "Why am I here? What happened? Have I lost my mind? Let me out! Let me out!' I shouted to no avail. After a while, I began to feel the end of the cell I was in. It was round and soft like something alive, and it began to move. Oh my God, I cried. what's going on Jesus, where are you?' But I could only hear the echo of my own voice in response. Fear the most terrible fear -- seized my soul. For the first time since Jesus left I began to realize that I am lost without any hope. I groaned and called out to Jesus countless times. Then I heard a voice in the darkness saying, It will do you no good to call Jesus. He is not here. A small light began to fill the cell. For the first time I could see other cells, cells like mine, buried in the wall of the heart. A kind of spider web was in front of us, and inside each cell oozed a kind of sticky, muddy substance. A woman's voice in the next cell said to me, "You are lost in this place of torture. There is no way out." I could see her very little in the dim light. She was awake as was I, but the occupants of the other cells seemed to be asleep or in a trance. "No hope," she cried, "no hope!" A feeling of intense loneliness and boundless despair fell upon me. The woman's words did not help me at all. She said, "This is the heart of hell. Here we are tortured, but our tortures are not as terrible as in other parts of hell." Later I realized that she lied to me saying that there was not as much torture there as in other parts of hell. Sometimes, she continued, "we are brought before Satan and he tortures us for his pleasure. Satan feeds on our pain and grows stronger through our cries of despair and regret. Our sins are always before us. We know that we are without God. We also know that we once knew the Lord Jesus but we turned away from God. We did everything that pleased us, before I came here I was a prostitute. I took men and women for their money. I destroyed many houses in these cells. I cried in the dark, "I should not be here. I am saved. I belong to God. Why am I here?" But there was no answer. Then the demons came back and opened the door of my cell. One pulled me, while the other pushed me along the winding path. The touch of the demons was like the touch of flames on my flesh.

Everything hurt.

'Oh Jesus, where are you? Please help me Jesus! I cried crying. A hissing fire shot out in front of me, but stopped before it touched me. Now it seemed to me that the flesh was torn from my body. The most excruciating pain imaginable engulfed me. I was suffering beyond imagination. Something invisible began to tear at my body as unclean spirits in the form of bats bit me all over. 'Dear Lord Jesus, I cried, Where are you? Oh, please, let me out!" I was pushed and pulled until I reached a wide open place in the heart of hell, where I was thrown onto some sort of dirty altar. On top of the altar was a large open book. I heard laughter. devil and I realized that I was standing in the dirt before Satan. Satan said, Finally I have you!" I retreated in horror but soon realized that he was not looking at me, but at someone in front of me. Satan said, "Ha, ha, at last I have the pleasure of destroying you from the earth. Let me see what your punishment will be." He opened the book and ran his finger down the pages. The soul's name was called, together with the method of punishment. Dear God, can all this be real? I was next, and the demons pushed me on the platform, and forced me to worship Satan. The same devilish laugh rang out from him. "I've been waiting for you for a long time, and at last I have you!" he cried with diabolical pleasure. You tried to escape, but now you are mine. A fear such as I had never felt before in my life came over me. The flesh from me it began to be broken again, and a strong chain was wrapped around my body. I looked down at me as the chain was placed over me. I was a skeleton full of Dead human bones crawled inside me, and a fire engulfed me again, 'Oh God, where are you?' There is no Jesus here, he said, "I am your king now. You will be with me forever. You are mine now." I was overcome by the most terrible emotions. I could feel neither God, nor love, nor peace, nor warmth. But I could feel, with the sharpest senses, fear, hatred, excruciating pain, and immeasurable bitterness. I cried out to the Lord Jesus to save me, but there was no answer. Satan said, "I am your master now," and raising his arms called a demon to him. Suddenly an evil and ugly spirit came to the platform where I was sitting and grabbed me. It had a large body, with a bat-like face, claws instead of hands, and a devilish stench emanating from it. "What shall I do with her, lord Satan?" asked the evil spirit, as another demon with hair all over his body and a face like a wild bull grabbed me as well.

"Take her to the deepest part of the heart—the place where horrors are ever before her eyes. There she will learn to call me 'sir.'" I was dragged away into a dark place, and cast into something cold and Viscous. How could I feel cold and hot at the same time? But the fire was burning on me, too. The desperate moans of the dead filled the air. "Oh God," I cried, "why am I here? Dear God, let me die." Suddenly, a light filled the place where I was sitting. Jesus appeared and took me in His arms, and instantly I was back in 'Dear Lord Jesus, where have you been?' I cried, tears streaming down my face. Gengas, Jesus said to me, 'Daughter, hell is real. But you would never really know until you experienced it yourself. Now you know the truth and what it really means to be lost in hell. Now you can tell others about him. I had to let you go through this to make sure, without a doubt.'

I was so sad and tired. I fainted in the arms of the Lord Jesus. And even though He completely strengthened me, I wanted to go far, far from Jesus, from my family, from the whole world. In the following days I was very sick. My soul was so sad, and the horrors of hell were continually before my eyes. Many days passed before she was truly recovered.

THE DARK OUTSIDE

Night after night, with Jesus, I went to hell that I might report these terrible truths. Whenever I passed by the heart, I walked very close to Jesus. An enormous fear gripped my soul, every time I remembered what happened there. I knew I had to go forward to save souls. But it was only by the grace of God that I could go there again. We stopped in front of a group of demons chanting and chanting praises to Satan. They seemed to be enjoying themselves very much. Jesus said, "I want you to hear what they say. We will go to that house today and terrorize the people there. We will get more power from Mr. Satan if we do everything right," they said. Oh yes, we will cause great pain and sickness there, and much mourning to all. They began to play and sing the devilish songs of Satan's praise, glorifying evil. One demon said, "We must be very careful of those who believe in Jesus, because they can take us out. "Yes," said another, in Jesus' name we must run." Then the last evil spirit said, "But we will not go to those who know Jesus and the power in His Name." Jesus said, "My angels guard My people from these evil spirits, and their works do not prosper. I also guard many of the unsaved, although they do not know. I have many angels at work to stop the impure plans of Satan." "There are many demons in the air and on the earth," said Jesus. "I have allowed you to see some of these demons, but not others. That is why the truth of the Gospel must be preached to everyone. The truth will set people free, and I will protect them from evil. In my name there is liberation and freedom. I have all power in heaven and earth. Fear not Satan, but fear God.' As we were walking through hell, Jesus and I came to a very dark man. He was in the form of an angel. He was holding something in his left hand. He said, 'This is the place called darkness.' outside." I heard crying and gnashing of teeth. Nowhere before was there such boundless hopelessness as the one I felt in this place. The angel that stood before us had no wings. He looked to be about 30 feet tall, and he knew exactly what he was doing. He had like a disk in his left hand, and he was turning slowly with this disk raised up as if he was trying to throw it. In the middle of the disk there was a fire, but on its edge there was darkness, the angel held his hand under the disk and leaned back a lot to give himself more momentum.

I wondered who that angel was and what he wanted to do. Jesus knew my thoughts and said, "This is the outer darkness. Remember what My Word says, 'The children of the kingdom will be cast into the outer darkness: there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

"Lord," I said, "do you mean that Your servants are here?" Yes," said Jesus, "the servants who turned back after I called them. Servants who loved the world more than Me and wallowed back in the mire and pleasures of sin. The servants who did not want to know about truth and holiness. It would have been better for them not to have begun at all, than to turn back after they had begun to serve Me." 'Believe Me,' said Jesus, 'if you sin, you have an advocate with the Father. If you repent of your sins, I will be faithful and cleanse you from all your iniquity. But if you will not repent, I will come at an hour when you do not think, and you will be cut off with the unbelievers and cast into outer darkness." I watched as the dark angel cast the great disc far, far, out into darkness. 'My Word means exactly what it says, 'they will be cast into outer darkness.' And then, immediately, Jesus and I were up in the air chasing that disc through space. I came to the outside of the disk and looked carefully inside. The center of the disk was full of fire, and people were swimming inside and outside, above and below the waves of flames. There were no demons or evil spirits there, only souls burning in the sea of fire outside the disk was the blackest darkness. The only light that illuminated the night air was only that which came from the flames in the disc. In that light I saw people trying to swim to the edges of the disk. Some of them almost reached the edge when an attractive force from within the disc pulled them back into the flames. I watched as their forms turned into skeletons with souls like gray vapors. I knew then that this was another part of hell. And then I saw as in a vision, angels opening some seals. Nations and kingdoms seemed to be locked under them. As the angels opened the seals, men and women, boys and girls marched straight into the flames. I watched the flames with a morbid fascination, wondering if I knew any of the Lord's servants who passed before me. I could not turn my head from the sight of souls marching towards the fire, and not one tried to stop them. I cried, 'God, please stop them before they get to the fire.' But Jesus answered, 'He who has ears to hear, let him hear. He who has eyes to see. My daughter, cry out against sin and against evil. Tell My servants to be faithful and call upon the Name of the Lord. I took you to this terrible place to tell them about hell.' Jesus continued, 'Some will not believe you. Some will say that God is too good to send men and women to hell. But tell them that My Word is true. Tell them that the fearful and unbelieving will have their share in the lake of fire.'

Horns

Jesus said, "At night, My child, we will go to a different part of the heart of hell. I want to tell you about the horns and show you how they will be used to channel evil spirits and demonic forces above the surface of the earth. .' While Jesus was speaking, I began to have a vision with my eyes open. In the vision, I saw an old, dead farmhouse surrounded by many dead trees and tall dead grass. The yard around the house was full of things There was no life there. It seemed as if it had fallen into the center of the field. I knew that this old house was part of hell I still didn't understand what I was seeing inside, there were large human-like shapes. One of the shadows approached the front door and opened it , with an extremely strong musculature, came to the door and walked onto the terrace. He was about two meters tall, with a weightlifter's build. His color was the same as that of all around, dead gray. He was wearing only a pair of men's trousers. They looked as gray and dead as the bare skin on his torso. His skin was like scales, and his head was very large. In fact, his head was so big that his legs were bent from carrying such a great weight. His soles were hooped like pig's hooves. His face was stern and devilishly evil, and he appeared to be very old. His eyes were dead and his face was very wide. in the vision I saw this terrible creature coming out on the old terrace. The ground shook as he moved, and horns grew on top of his head, high, high above and out of my sight. As he walked, I saw that his horns were slowly growing. And other horns began to grow from his head. The smaller horns sprouted from the larger ones. I saw that his head was like that of a beast - a powerful devilish beast full of destruction. Every step he took shook the ground.

Jesus said, 'Look.'

I have seen the horns find their way up and end up in homes, churches, hospitals, offices, and buildings of all kinds all over the earth. The horns made great havoc throughout the land. I saw the beast speak and unclean spirits were spat out on the ground. I have seen many people deceived by these demonic forces and falling into Satan's ways. We are at war - good against evil, I thought. "We are at war," I heard the Spirit of the Lord say, good against evil. Black clouds came out of the horns and hid many forms of evil that were happening on the face of the earth. All the abominations that God hates are here. I saw kings rise from the earth, and millions began to follow these diabolical forces. I saw the old horns replaced by new ones that grew in their place. I heard Jesus say, "This is beginning to happen now! These things are, were, and will be.

People will become lovers of themselves instead of God. Wickedness will increase immeasurably in the last days. Men and women will love their houses, cars, lands, buildings, businesses, silver and gold more than Me." "REPENT," He said, "for I am a jealous God. You cannot put anything before My worship - not sons or daughters, not wives or husbands. For God is Spirit, and he must be worshiped in Spirit and in truth." I watched as the horns moved across the face of the earth, rising up to the heavens. New kingdoms arose, and there was war and destruction. on the ground. Those who worshiped the Beast were many. The horned beast moved from side to side as if thinking about something, and after a few minutes it turned at the old house. Dark clouds arose, and there were many dead in the world. And I began to pray with all my heart. Then, two beasts, I cried spirits rose up on the ground and began to make war with each other. I knew that they were coming from hell. A sea of people stood and watched the fight between these two demons land between them. They stopped the fight and stood each on one side of a large vessel. Both beasts tried to destroy the sea vessel, but they could not. They pushed him down under the ground, and buried him between the two of them. They sat face to face again, ready to finish their fight.

I heard a voice say, "Look." As I watched, a light appeared on the ground where the vessel had been buried. The vessel reappeared on the surface and became a very large disk. The two beasts began to take other forms and became large and black. A door in front of the disc opened and a bright beam of light revealed a flight of stairs. The stairs went down, down into the ground, and I heard a voice say, "To hell!" There was a very diabolical feeling in the air, and I felt lost and paralyzed watching. A paralyzing force was coming out of the disk, and I had nowhere to run. I felt trapped, even though I was in the Spirit. Almost immediately, Jesus lifted me up higher and now I was looking down at the vision. But now the stairs became an escalator, moving from the top down from the heart of the earth. When I was next to Jesus, I felt safe and protected. He will come out of Hell," I heard a voice say. Jesus said, 'This will be. This will come. Write for all to know. In my vision the escalator was bringing up demonic forces and unclean spirits. The two beasts each sat in one side of the vessel, and I saw them begin to change again. I heard a noise like a roaring sea - the sound of the engines going at a great speed. The heads of the beasts became large, and a light began to fill the head I saw the two beasts and the vessel joined together. Many souls, as if walking in one of these beasts, watched this repulsive scene for hours, until one of the beasts it was full of people. I listened, and from the first beast came a roar as if it were ready to take flight. The beast got its power from the ship again the shape of a man. As he flew, his head seemed full of light, and great power emanated from him. Disappearing into the air, his head turned into a vessel again. As I watched the second beast fill with people, I could still hear the sound of the first beast. When she was full, I saw the second beast start to move like a rocket. She reached the first beast, and they both slowly moved on into the gloomy air. The second beast took the form of a man again. I heard their screeching again before they disappeared. I wondered what this could mean. I saw the vessel, or disk, settling back on the ground. The earth closed in on him until he was out of sight. As the vision began to fade, I saw a very large judicial court and thought of the Great White Throne Judgment.

THE RIGHT ARM OF HELL

After the first vision, Jesus went with me to a different part of hell. Jesus said, 'These things that you see will be for the end times.' Another vision appeared before me. Jesus said, 'We are on the right arm of hell.' I went up a dry hill, I looked down and saw a river full of eddies. There were no pits of fire or evil spirits, only a large one flowing between the banks of the the river was hidden in the darkness. Jesus and I walked closer to the river, and I saw that it was full of blood and fire. Looking closer, I saw many souls, each one chained to the other. The weight of the chains dragged them under the surface of the lake of fire. I saw also that they were in the form of gray mist. These are the souls of the unbelievers of the godless. These were lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God. These were men who loved men, and women who did not repent of their sins loved their life of sin and trampled underfoot My salvation." I sat next to Jesus and looked at the lake of fire. Suddenly, the fire started roaring like a huge furnace, moving and destroying everything in its path. Soon it filled almost the entire right arm of hell. The fire came within a few feet of us but did not touch us. The river was burning everything in its path. I looked at the face of Jesus, and it was full of sadness and tenderness. Love and compassion for lost souls could still be seen written on His face. I started to cry and I wanted to be able to leave that place of torture, it was almost unbearable to continue.

I looked again at the souls in the fire. They were red from the fire and their bones were blackened and burned. I heard the soul's cry of regret. The Lord said, This is their torture; chain by chain, they are chained together. They wanted the flesh of their fellow men, men with men, and women with women, doing what was not natural. They have led many young boys and girls into acts of sin. They called that love, but in the end it was only sin and death." "I know that many boys and girls, men and women, were forced against their will to commit these heinous acts - I know this, and I will not hold their sins to their reckoning. But remember this," said Jesus, "I know all things, and the persons who caused these young men to sin have a greater punishment. I will judge with justice. To the sinner I say, Repent, and I will have mercy. Call Me and I will hear. "I have always called these souls to repent and come to Me. I would have forgiven and cleansed them; and in My Name they could have been set free. But they did not want to listen to Me. They wanted the lust of the flesh more than the love of the living God. Because I am holy, you must be holy. Touch not the unclean things, and I will receive you, said the Lord.

I felt very sick looking at the souls in the lake of fire. "If only they had turned back before it was too late," Jesus continued. "My blood was shed so that anyone could come to Me. I gave My life so that even the worst of sinners could live." Multitudes of souls went into the river of flames. They struggled above and below the waves of fire. There was no way out of the scalding and hot swimming in the lake of fire. As the bloody river passed us we heard cries of regret. We took a path that went by the river. In front of us, on a hill, was a large woman. She swayed sometimes to one side and to another as if she were drunk. On it were written the words "Secret Babylon." Now I realized that the mother of all evils on earth also came from hell. She exuded a devilish, powerful force; and I saw multitudes of souls, peoples, and tongues under it. She had seven heads and 10 manes. In it was found the blood of prophets and saints and all those who were killed on earth. Come out of her and separate yourselves," said the Lord. She will be destroyed in her time. I passed the evil woman with mane on her head. Everything was starting to get dark. Now Jesus was the only light. I walked until I came to another hill. From a distance I could see large flames in the air. The atmosphere became fierce. I walked around the hill and came to a door cut into the hill. It was at the edge of the hill. There was a large chain on the door, and flames roared beyond it. The door was also locked with large padlocks. I wondered what this could mean. Suddenly, a dark figure of a man wrapped in a long, dark cloak appeared in front of the door. His face looked very old and tired. The skin on his face was pulled tight against the bones of his skull. He looked to be a thousand years old. Jesus said to me, "Behind this door is the bottomless pit. My words are true." The flames behind the door rose higher and higher, and the door buckled under the pressure of the heat. "Dear God," I said, "I shall be very glad when Satan is cast into the bottomless pit, and all these evil things shall be stopped for a time." He answered, "Come, hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. The end is near, and I am calling all sinners to repent and be saved. Look now." We were standing in a place like a light, and we were with the Lord in the Spirit. I looked and saw a vision with my eyes open. In this vision I saw a fiery dragon asking to be allowed to strike the air with its enormous tail. I looked at this spirit dragon that was moving with incredible power. Then I saw Them going back to the right arm of hell to wait. I knew that he could not strike the earth until the Word of the Lord was fulfilled. I saw fire and smoke rising out of the earth, and I saw a strange mist forming above the earth. I saw patches of darkness appearing here and there. Horns began to sprout from the fiery dragon's head. They spread until they covered the whole earth. Satan gave orders to the fiery dragon. Unclean spirits and demons were present. Then I saw the fiery dragon coming from the right arm of hell and began to strike the earth with tremendous force, striking and destroying many people. Jesus said, "This will happen in the last time. Come up." Reader, if you commit any of these sins that I wrote about, please stop sinning and call on Jesus to save you. You don't have to go to hell. Call on Jesus while He is near. He will hear you and save you. Whoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

THE LEFT ARM OF HELL

Jesus said, "These things are now beginning to happen on the earth, they will be, and soon they will come upon the whole earth. The fiery dragon is part of the Beast. These prophecies that you will read about are true. The revelations are true. Watch and pray. "Love one another. Keep your hands clean. Love your wives as Christ loved you. Men and women, Love one another as I have loved you. I ordained the marriage and blessed it with My Word. Keep the marriage bed holy. Cleanse yourselves from all unrighteousness and be without spot as I am without spot. "The holy people have been led astray by flatterers. Do not be deceived; God is not mocked. You will get the skill if you close your ears and listen to Me. This is the Lord's message to the churches. Beware of the false prophets who stand in My holy place with flattery. My people have fallen asleep. Wake up! I tell you that all iniquity is sin. Cleanse yourself from all the sins of the flesh and the spirit saints lived holy lives, but you rebelled against Me and My holiness. You have brought your misfortune upon yourselves. You have sinned and entered the curse of disease and death alone. You have committed iniquity and done evil and rebelled against Me. You have departed from my laws and my judgments. You did not listen to the words of My servants, prophets and prophetesses. Instead of blessings, curses have come upon you, and yet you refuse to return to Me and repent of your sins. "If you will return and repent, and if you will honor Me with the fruits of righteousness, I will bless your houses and I will honor your beds. If you will humble yourself and call on Me, I will hear you and bless you "Listen, you servants of My Holy Word. Remember that judgments will begin at the house of God, until you repent of your sins." which you have taught My people. Do you think that I am blind and cannot see, and deaf and cannot hear? repent, I tell you, before it is too late. On Judgment Day you will stand alone before Me to give an account of what you did with My Holy Word. If you will call Me in repentance, I will remove the curse from your lands and bless you with great blessings. If you will repent and be ashamed of your sins, I will have mercy and compassion on you, and I will not remember your sins ever again. "Pray to be victorious Awake to life and live. Repent before the people whom you have led astray and to whom you have given false teachings. Tell them that you have sinned and that you have scattered My sheep . Repent before them. "I am preparing a holy army. She will do great things for Me and tear down your heights. It is an army made up of men and women, boys and girls. They were anointed to preach the truth of the Gospel, lay hands on the sick and call sinners to repentance. "This is an army made up of working people, housewives, unmarried men, unmarried women and school children. They are common people, because not many learned people responded to My call. In the past they were misunderstood and mistreated, abused and rejected. But I have blessed them in holiness and in spirit. They will begin to fulfill My will. I will walk with them and work in them.

"These are the ones who have returned to Me with all their heart, with all their soul, with all their mind and strength. This army will awaken many to righteousness and holiness of spirit. Soon I will begin to touch them, to I choose for My army those who I want, I will look for them in the cities and villages. Many will be surprised that I have chosen just those. You will see how they will start the work on the land and do works in My name. Look and see My power at work. Do not defile your marriage bed. Sins of the flesh lead to your marriage bed man for woman and woman for man, and I have decided that the two shall be united in holy matrimony. Again I say to you, I have seen many other visions in the left arm of hell. But the Lord has stopped me from telling them now .Many of them were visions of the world in the end times, when many of God's people will fall and be lost. In those visions I was given revelations about the body of Christ, the service of the sons of God, the sons of the Beast and finally about the return of Christ. "Later, you can reveal them," He said, "but not now." "This army," said the Lord, "of which the prophet Joel speaks, will arise on earth and do great works for God. The Son of Righteousness will rise with healing in His wings. He will trample the wicked, and they will be ashes under the soles of His feet." "They will be called the army of the Lord. I will give them gifts, and they will do great works. They will conquer and conquer for the glory of the Lord. I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and daughters will prophesy." This army will fight against the forces of evil and destroy much of Satan's work. They will win many to Jesus Christ before the day the evil beast comes. will arise, said the Lord. Jesus said, "Come, it is time for us to go."

At last we left the visions of the left leg of hell. I was very relieved. As we walked away, Jesus said, "Tell your families that I love them and punish them in love. Tell them that I will keep them from harm if they put their trust in Me." Readers, please use the Bible references in the back of this book. The Lord told Me to put them there.

THE DAYS OF JOEL

I heard a voice say, "Write, for these things are worthy of belief and true. Again I was with the Lord in the Spirit. He was on high and above all, and His voice was like thunder. 'Behold, O earth, these things are, were and will come! I am the beginning and the End! Serve Me, for I give life, not death! Call on Me, and I will heal you and deliver. The things you read in this book are true, and they will soon be fulfilled. "Repent, for the time is near, and the Lord of glory will appear soon! Be ready because you know neither the day nor the hour. Great will be the reward of those who await My coming. I will bless My little ones, those who kept the faith and who served Me in truth and righteousness; before they know it, it will come upon them. I have prepared a blessing for those who were faithful to My call and those who did not deny My name. "I tell you, if My people, upon whom My name is called, will humble themselves and pray, I will forgive them and heal them and restore all their losses. I desire to hear, to deliver, and to save all those who will believe and call on My name. "Keep a holy fast. Hold a holy assembly. Gather the elders and the inhabitants of the land into My house, and cry out to Me. Behold, the day of the Lord is coming like a thief in the night - the day is near. "Believe in Me, and I will return to you what the grasshopper, the caterpillar, the worm and the beetle have eaten. "My great army that I have called will not go out of line, nor will they miss a step. They will do great works, and they will not be overcome because I am their strength. Their voices will sound like a trumpet, they will resound like thunder, and everyone will hear and know that I am the Lord your God."

Dear Lord Jesus, my prayer is that I too be considered worthy to be in this army. I also want to be in this army, but I know that I must be pure and holy; as Jesus was pure and holy. Through the shed blood of Jesus cleanse me from all unrighteousness. Help me to keep a repentant heart, without any hatred or bitterness. Father, I know that many of Your people are asleep. You will have to break our clay vessels and humble us if you want us to have the fruits of righteousness. God, I don't want to go to hell again and have to stay there. O Lord, help Me to warn the people. Give me strength to stop hell from breaking loose again. Help me and your people to be kind, kind-hearted, forgiving and to love one another. Help us to speak the truth all the time. I know that Jesus Christ is returning soon, and His rewards are with Him. I know my message to the world is, Repent, for the Day of the Lord is near. Father, I do not want the blood of these people on my hands.

THE CENTER OF HELL

Again I went to hell with the Lord.

Jesus said to me, "My daughter, this is the purpose for which you were born, to write and tell what I have told you and I have shown you. Because these things are worthy of belief and true. I have called you to tell the world through you that I have prepared a way of salvation. I will not show you all the parts of hell. There are certain things that I cannot reveal to you much. Come now to see the powers of darkness and their end." I went into the belly of hell again and entered through a small opening. I turned to look where I was entering and noticed that I was on an exit next to a cell in the center of hell. I stopped in front of the cell where a wonderful woman was. Above the cell were written the letters "B.C." I heard the woman say, "Lord, I knew you would come one day. Please let me out (take me) out of this place of torture." She was dressed in the clothes of an ancient era, and she was wonderfully beautiful. I knew she had been there for many centuries and could not die. Her soul was in torture. He started pulling the bars and crying. softly Jesus said, "Peace, be still." He spoke to her with sadness in His voice. "Woman, you know why you're here." "Yes," she said, "but I can change, I remember when you let all those out of the abode of the dead, I remember your words of salvation. I will be good now!" cried she, weeping, "And I will serve Thee alone." She clamped her fists on the bars of the cage with her small fists and began to scream, "Let me out! Let me out!" At this, she began to change before our eyes. Her clothes started burning. Her flesh fell away, and all that remained was a black skeleton filled with black burned holes for her eyes and an empty hole for her soul. I watched in horror as the old woman fell to the ground. All her beauty was gone in a moment. My mind stopped thinking that she was born before Christ. Jesus said to him, "You knew from the earth what your end would be. Moses gave you the law, and you heard it. But instead of obeying My law, you chose to be an instrument in the hand of Satan, a soothsayer and sorceress. You also taught others the art of sorcery. You loved the darkness rather than the light. If you had repented with your heart, My Father would have forgiven you . But now it is too late. With pain and pity in our hearts, there will never be an end to her pains and sufferings. The bones of her hands were reaching out to us "Daughter," said the Lord, "Satan uses many methods to destroy good men and women. He works day and night trying to get people to serve him." If you neglect to choose to serve God, you have already chosen to serve Satan. Choose life, and the truth will set you free.

After walking a short distance, we stopped in front of another cell. I heard a man's voice call out, "Who's there? Who's there?" I was wondering why he was shouting. Jesus said, "He is blind." I heard a noise and looked over there. In front of us was a large demon with huge wings that seemed to be torn off. He was looking beyond us. I stood close to Jesus together, we turned to look at the man who had spoken. He was also in a cell, and standing with his back to us he was in skeletal form with fire and the smell of death on him. He was holding out his hands and shouting, 'HELP, HELP ME somebody!' Gengas, Jesus said to him, 'Man, peace, be still.' The man turned and said, 'Lord, I knew you would come for me. I repent now! Please let me out! I know I was a horrible person and used my flaw for filthy lucre. I know I was a sorcerer and deceived many for Satan. But Lord, I repent now. Please let me out! Day and night I am tortured in these flames, where there is no water. I am so thirsty!' he cried crying, "Won't you give Me some water?" The man was still crying out for Jesus as we walked away. I looked down in sorrow. Jesus said, "All the magicians and workers the lawless shall have their portion in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone. This is the second death.' I got to another cell where another man was, "Lord, I knew You would come and set me free. I have already repented for a long time." This man was also a skeleton, full of flames and worms 'Man, you are still full of lies and sin. You know that you were a disciple of Satan, a liar who deceived many. Truth was never in your mouth, and death was always your reward. You have heard My words often and mocked My salvation and My Holy Spirit. You lied all your life and did not want to listen to Me. You belong to your father the devil. All liars will have their share in the lake of fire. You have blasphemed against the Holy Spirit." The man began to curse and say many bad things to the Lord. We went on. This soul was lost in hell forever. Jesus said, "Anyone who wants can come to Me, and he who loses his life for My Name will find life, abundant life. But sinners must repent while they are still on earth; it's too late to repent when they get here. Many sinners want to serve both God and Satan; or they think they have unlimited time to accept the grace that God offers them. The truly wise will choose whom to serve today." Soon we reached the next cell.

A pitiful cry of annoyance could be heard from within. I looked and saw a skeleton of a man curled up on the ground. His bones were black as burnt embers, and his soul was like a mist of a dirty gray inside. I noticed that parts of his body were missing. Smoke and flames were all around him. Worms were crawling inside him. Jesus said, "This man's sins are many. He was a criminal and had hatred in his heart. He would not repent or even believe that I would forgive him. If only he would come to Me." "Do you mean, Lord," I asked, "that he thought that You would not forgive him of his crimes and hatred? Yes, said Jesus. If only he had listened to Me and come to Me, I would have forgiven him all his sins, great and small. Instead, he continued in his sin. That is why he is here today. He has been given many opportunities to serve Me believe in the gospel, but he refused. Now it is too late." The next cell we came to was filled with a terrible smell. I could hear the cries of the dead and moans of regret everywhere. I felt so sad that I was almost sick. I promised myself that I would do my best to tell the world about this place. A woman's voice said, "Help me." I fixed my eyes on an actual pair of eyes, not the empty sockets that were the signs of fire. I was so sad that I was trembling, and I felt so much pity and anger for this soul. I wanted so badly to grab her and drag her out of her cell and run away with her. "It's so painful," she said. "Lord, I will do what is right now. I once knew You, and You were my Savior." Her hands were clamped by the bars of the cell. "Why don't you want to be my Devourer now?" Large pieces of burning flesh fell from it, and only the bones clung to the bars. "You also cured me of cancer," she said. "You told me to go and stop sinning so that something worse would not happen to me. I tried Lord; You know I tried. I even tried to be a witness for You. "But, Lord, I soon noticed that those who preach Your Word are not popular. I wanted the world to please me. I slowly went back into the world and the lusts of the flesh devoured me. Night clubs and strong drinks became more important than You. I lost touch with my Christian friends and soon found myself seven times worse than before. "And although I began to love both men and women, I never intended to be lost. I did not know that I was possessed by Satan, I still felt Your call in my life to repent and be saved, but I did not return. I kept thinking I still have time. 'Tomorrow I will turn back to Jesus, and He will forgive me and set me free.' But I have waited too long, and now it is too late," she cried, weeping. Her eyes burst into flames and disappeared. I cried aloud and fell toward Jesus.

Oh my God, I thought. how easily I could be this or one of my loved ones! Please sinner, Wake up before it's too late.

I left for another cell. In it was the skeletal form of another man with a soul like a gray-dirty mist inside. Cries of terrible pain and regret came from this man, and I knew I would never be able to forget them. Jesus said, "Daughter, some who will read this book will compare it to an imaginary history or some movie they have seen. They will say that it is not true. But you know that it is true. You know that hell is real, because I have brought you here many times by My Spirit. I have revealed the truth to you so that you can confess it."

Lost people, if you will not repent and be baptized, and believe in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, this will surely be your end. "This man is here," said the Lord, "because of his rebellion. The sin of rebellion is like the sin of witchcraft. In fact, all who know My Word and My ways and have heard the gospel and yet have not repented are in rebellion. to Me. Many are in hell today because of this sin." The man said to Jesus, "I once thought of making You Lord of my life, but I didn't want to walk in Your straight and narrow way. I wanted the broad way. It was much easier to serve sinners. No I wanted to become righteous. I wanted to drink strong drinks and do the things of this world. But now I wish I had obeyed those whom You sent instead I did what was bad and I didn't want to repent." Deep rumblings shook his body as he cried out in regret. "For years I have been tortured in this place. I know where I am, and I know that I will never come out. I am tortured day and night in these flames and by these worms. I cry out, but no one comes to help me. No one -cares about my soul here - nobody cares about my soul..." He fell on a small rise in the floor and continued to shout. Jesus cried out, "Father, Father, have mercy!" I went to another one. A woman sat cleaning the worms from her bones. She began to cry when she saw Jesus. "Help me God," she said, "I'll be good. Please let me out!" She stood up and grabbed the bars of the cell with her hands. I felt great pity for her. She was crying sobbing that shook her body. She said, "Lord, when I was on earth I worshiped the gods of the Hindus and many other idols. I did not believe the gospel that the missionaries preached, although I heard it many times. One day I died, I cried to my gods to save me from hell but they could not. Now Lord, I would like to repent!" "It is too late," said Jesus. Flames covered her face when we left, and her cries still fill my soul even now. Satan deceived her. With sadness in His voice, Jesus said, 'Come. We will be back tomorrow.

It's time to go."

WAR IN HEAVEN

The Spirit of the Lord was (came) upon me, and again I went to hell. Jesus said, "I tell you the truth, many souls are here because of witchcraft, occultism, worshiping other idols, disobedience, unbelief, drunkenness, and uncleanness of body and soul. Come, I will show you a mystery and tell you hidden things . I will show you how to pray against the forces of Satan. I have gone to a part of hell that is placed near the demonic heart. widen alone." We stopped, and He said, "Look and believe." I looked and had a vision with my eyes open. In the vision, Jesus and I were above the earth looking into space. I saw a high spiritual circle far above the earth. The circle was invisible to the natural eye, but I could see it well. I knew that this vision was of our struggle against the princes and powers of the air. As I looked, there were actually more circles. In the first circle there were many dirty (disgusting, disgusting) spirits. I saw the dirty (filthy) spirits take the form of witches, and they began to fly and cause much spiritual harm. I heard the voice of Jesus saying, "I have given My children power over these evil spirits. Listen and learn how to pray." I saw a strange form rise from another circle and began to circle around her and began to cast (do) spells. Then I saw a demon rise up and do things evil on the earth. He was turning and laughing, and he was casting spells on different people, and Satan gave him great power. Behold, what you bind on earth I will bind in heaven, said Jesus. "Satan must be bound if the prayers of the saints are to be effective in these last days." From another circle I saw another sorcerer stand up, and he began to give orders. Rain and fire fell on the earth as he spoke. He spoke many bad things (blasphemous words), and he deceived many people on earth. As I watched I saw two more evil spirits join the sorcerer, far above the earth. These were demonic princes and the powers of the air. They gave power to witches who were gathered together in one place to do harm. Workers of darkness (darkness) gathered around them. The spirits came and went as they pleased. "Look carefully," said Jesus, "because the Holy Spirit reveals to you a great truth." In the vision I saw terrible things happening on earth. Evil was magnified (increased) and sin flourished (multiplied). The forces of evil caused people to steal, lie, cheat, harm each other, speak evil, and be slaves to the lusts of the flesh and earthly nature. All kinds of evil were thrown upon the earth.

I said, 'Jesus, what I see is terrible!'

Jesus said, "Daughter, in My Name, evil must flee. Put on the whole armor of God that you may stand in that day; after you have done all, you may stand." While the unclean spirits poured their abominations and their malice on earth I saw how God's people began to pray. They prayed in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ and with faith. As they prayed, the Word of God came against the unclean spirits, and they began to lose ground. When the saints prayed, the forces of evil lost their power. The spells were broken, and those who had been weakened by the forces of hell were strengthened. And as they prayed with one voice, the angels of heaven entered into battle. I saw the holy angels fighting with the princes of evil and the powers of the air, and the angels of God destroying the powers of the wicked one. I looked, and behold, there were rows upon rows of angelic forces, about 600 angels in each row. As the people believed God, the angels advanced. God gave orders, and great was His power. He gave great power to His people and angels to destroy the works of Satan. God fought against evil in the air. When the people prayed and believed in God, the forces of evil were destroyed; but when there was unbelief, the powers of evil began to win. "My people must believe, and they must agree with one another and with Me," says the Lord, "if they will lay all things at the Father's feet." Heaven and earth must agree if we want to destroy our enemies. As the praises of God's people began to rise from the earth, the forces of evil retreated. HALLELUJAH!!! I saw God's saints praying with all their hearts against the devil's fury, As they prayed, Spells and curses were destroyed, and the saints gained the victory.

Here's how it happened: As the angels of the Lord fought with the demons and the forces of hell, the saints were released through prayer. As the people were freed, many praises rang out to God, and the praises brought even greater victory. Only when the results of the prayers were not seen immediately, the praises began to stop, and evil began to win the battle. I heard an angel cry out with a loud voice, "O Lord, the faith of Your people is weak. If they want to be delivered from the hordes of Satan, they must have faith. Lord, have mercy on the heirs of salvation." The voice of the Lord answered, "Without faith it is impossible to please God. But the Lord is faithful, and He will strengthen you. Again I saw in the vision how God poured out His Spirit upon every creature, and the people believed that God will do what they will ask because they belonged to Him and loved Him sincerely. They had faith in God, and God delivered them. And the Lord said, "All things are possible for the one who believes. I watch over My Word to fulfill it. You do your part, and be sure that I will do My part. If My people will only tell the truth, if they will fight the good fight. wonderful things will happen as on the Day of Pentecost. Call Me and I will hear you. I will be your God and you will be My people. I will strengthen you in righteousness, truth and sincerity." In the vision, I saw Christians born again like newborn babies. I saw angels standing over them to protect them from all harm. I saw the Lord of Hosts fighting (carrying) the battle them and winning the victory for them. Then I saw the babies growing and reaping the harvest for the Lord of Glory doing the work of the Lord with a joyful heart, trusting in God and serving God. I saw the angels and the Word of the Lord uniting to destroy evil from the face of the earth. I saw peace on earth, when everything was laid at the feet of God.

SEEING WITH OPEN EYES

"This vision is for the future," said the Lord, "and it will come to pass. But I will come to rapture My Bride, My Church, and they will not see. Awake My people! Sound the alarm in all the corners of the earth , because I will return, as My Word has told you." I looked at the fiery dragon that was on the left side of hell. Jesus said, "Come and see what the Spirit says to the world." I saw the dragon's manes when they entered the bodies of men on earth. Many were completely possessed by the dragon. Looking, I saw a huge Beast rise up in a wide place and transform into a man. The inhabitants of the earth fled from him, some in the desert, some in caves, and some in subway stations or underground shelters they sought shelter to hide from the eyes of the Beast. Not one glorified God, nor spoke of Jesus.

A voice said to me, "Where are My people?"

I looked closer and saw people walking like the dead. There was a desperate sadness in the air, and no one turned to the right or to the left. I saw that they were driven by an unseen force. From time to time a voice spoke to them from the air, and they listened to that voice. They didn't talk to each other. I saw that the number 666 was written on each forehead and on their hands. I saw soldiers on horses leading people as if they were animals. The American flag, tattered and torn, was left on the ground. There was no joy, there was no laughter, there was no happiness. I saw death and evil everywhere. People were walking in line one behind the other in the district of a very large store. They walked like disheartened soldiers and were dressed identically in a sort of prisoner's clothing. A large fence surrounded the shop, and guards were stationed from place to place. Everywhere I looked, I saw soldiers in battle uniforms. I saw these people driven like zombie monkeys in the store, where they could buy only the bare necessities. When everyone was done buying, they were loaded into a green army truck. The truck, well guarded, was driven to another area. Here, in a kind of clinic, these people were examined for contagious diseases or handicaps (defects) that deformed them. A small number were pushed aside as scraps. Soon, those who failed the exam were taken to another room. In that room, an impressive number of switches, buttons, and measuring devices were lined up along the edge of an entire wall. A door opened and several technicians entered. One of them started calling the names of those in the rejected group. Without any resistance, they stood up when their names were called, and walked lying in a large box. When they were inside, another technician closed the door, and pulled a handle from the panel on the wall. A few minutes later he opened the door, took a broom and dustpan, and swept what was left of them off the floor. Nothing was left but a little dust from what had been a room full of people! I then saw the people who passed the medical exam being put in a truck and taken to a train. Neither of them spoke, they didn't even look at each other. There in a building, each person was given a certain service. Everyone went to work without the slightest discussion. I watched them work very hard at their given task, and at the end of the day, they were taken to an apartment building with a high fence around it. Everyone undressed and went to bed. The next day they had another hard day. I heard a loud voice fill the night air.

I saw a huge Beast sitting on a very large throne. All the people listened to the Beast. I saw how some spiritual manes grew from her head. They have reached every place on earth. The beast himself took many positions of authority and many positions, and became great in power. The beast stuffed itself in many places and deceived many people. The rich and the famous were deceived as well as the poor and the disenfranchised. Young and old paid homage to the Beast. A large machine was brought into an office. The beast made his mark on him, and his voice came from him. There was also a "big brother" device that could see into homes and offices. Only one self, this device existed, and it belonged to the Beast. The part of the device that was in people's homes was invisible to the naked eye, but it could and did report The Beast's every move. I watched as the Beast turned his throne to face me. On his forehead was the number 666. As I watched, I saw a man in another office who had become enraged at the Beast asked to speak to the Beast. He shouted with all his might. The Beast appeared, and looked very courteous, saying, "Come, I will help you to solve your problems. The beast took the enraged man into a large room, and beckoned him to lie down on a large table. The room and the table reminded me of a hospital emergency room. The man was anesthetized and transported under a very large machine. The beast attached all kinds of wires to the man's head and started the machine. On the head of the machine were written the words, "This mind-wiper belongs to the Beast, 666." When the man was released from the table, his eyes had a blank look, and his movements resembled those of a zombie ape. I saw an empty place at the top of his head, and I knew that his mind was so altered that he could now be controlled by the Beast. The beast said to him, "Now, sir, don't you feel better? Didn't I tell you that I will take care of all your problems? I have given you a new mind. You will have no more fears or problems from now on.' The man did not speak. 'You will obey my every command,' said the Beast, grabbing a small object and attaching it to the man's shirt. He spoke to the man again, and he answered without moving his lips. He moved like a dead man. You will work and you won't get angry or nervous, you won't cry or be sad anymore. You will work for me until you die. I have many like you that I control. Some lie, some kill, some steal, some make war, some have children, some drive cars, and some do other things. "Yes, I control everything;" A devilish laugh came out of him. The man was given some papers to sign. He gladly gave all his belongings to the Beast.

In my vision I saw that man leaving the Beast's office, getting into a car and going home. When he approached his wife, she tried to kiss him, but he made no move to respond. He no longer had any feelings for his wife, nor for others. The beast made him unable to have any more feelings or emotions. The woman became very angry and shouted at her husband, but to no avail. Finally she said, "OK, I'll call the Beast, he'll know what to do." After a short phone call, she left the house and arrived at the same building that her husband had just left. The beast greeted her and said, "Tell me all your problems. I'm sure I'll be able to help you." A very handsome man took her by the arm and led her to the same table where her husband had been a few hours earlier. After the same operation, she also became a slave without personality, belonging to the Beast. I heard the Beast ask her "How are you feeling?" She said nothing until he attached a small object to her blouse. Then she recognized that he was her lord and master and began to worship him.

'You will be my maid,' he said. "You will have perfect children, and they will serve me and worship me." The woman replied in a robotic voice, "Yes, master, I will listen to you." I saw the woman again. During this time he was in another building. There were many pregnant women there. The women lay lifeless on their beds and chanted praises to the Beast. They all had 666 on their foreheads. When the children were born, they were taken to another building where mentally deranged sisters had the duty of taking care of them. The sisters also had on their foreheads 666. The beast grew in power until his empire extended over the earth. The children also grew up, and at a certain time, they too were taken under the mind-destroying machine. They worshiped the Beast and his image. But the apparatus had no power over God's children. I heard the voice of the Lord saying. Those who will worship the Beast and his image will perish. Many will be deceived and fall, but I will save My children from the Beast. These things will come to pass in the latter times. Do not take the mark of the Beast. Repent now before it is too late. The beast will call himself the man of peace. And it will bring peace to many peoples in a chaotic time. He, the Beast, will be able to supply people's needs with cheap things, and will assure everyone that their wages are sufficient. He will make an alliance with many nations, and the great men of the world will follow him in a false sense of security before these times, I will raise up an army of believers who will stand for truth and righteousness. The great army of which Loel spoke will hear My voice from the rising of the sun until the setting of the sun. In the hours of the night they will also hear my voice, and they will answer me. They will work for Me, and they will run like mighty men of war. They will do great things for Me, and I will be with them." All these were revealed to me by the Lord Jesus Christ in a vision with open eyes. They are the words of His mouth, and they are concerning the times of the end together with Jesus I returned home, and I marveled at all the things He showed me and told me. I fell asleep praying for the salvation of mankind.

THE JAWS OF HELL

The next night I entered the jaws of hell with Jesus. Jesus said, 'I am almost done with hell, My daughter. I won't show you all hell. But what I have shown you, I want you to tell the world. Tell them hell is real. Tell them this report is real. As we walked, we stopped at the top of a hill that looked into a small valley. As far as I could see, there were layers of human souls that were on the side of this hill. I could hear their cries. Loud noises could be heard all over the place. Jesus said, "Daughter, these are the jaws of hell. Every time the mouth of hell is opened, you will hear that great noise. The souls were trying to get out but they could not, because they were caught in the walls of hell. As Jesus spoke, I saw many dark forms falling down by us and with a muffled noise they remained at the foot of the hill. Demons with great chains were dragging the souls from there. 'These are the souls that have just died on earth. This one activity is day and night. Suddenly, there was a great silence everywhere. Jesus said, I love you, My daughter, and I want you to tell people on earth about 'hell.' I looked down into the jaws of hell. Cries of pain and torture were coming from there. I would have been so glad to rest , suddenly I felt very lost. I can't say how I knew, but I knew with all my heart that Jesus had left. I turned to the place where it was safe, Jesus it wasn't there!

"Oh, No!" I cried, "Not again! Oh Jesus, where are you?" The one you will read now will scare you. I pray that you will be so afraid that you will become a believer. I pray that you will repent of your sins so that you will not go to that horrible place. I pray you believe me, because I don't want this to happen to anyone again. I love you and I hope you wake up before it's too late. If you are a Christian and read this book, be sure of your salvation. Be ready to meet the Lord at any time, because often there is no time for repentance. Keep your light burning and your lamp full of oil. Be ready, because you don't know when He will return. If you are not born again, read John 3:16-19 call on the Lord. He will free you from this place of torture.

Calling out to Jesus, I started running downhill looking for him. I was stopped by a large demon with a chain. He laughed and said, "You have nowhere to run, woman. Jesus is not here to save you. You are in hell for eternity. "Oh no," I cried, "let me go!" I fought with him with all my might, but soon I was chained and thrown to the ground. As I lay there, a sticky, foul substance began to cover my body, smelling so horrible that I felt horribly sick. I didn't know what was going to happen. Then I felt my flesh and skin begin to fall off my bones! I screamed and screamed in desperate horror. "Oh Jesus," I cried, "where are you?" I looked at myself and saw that holes had begun to appear in what was left of my flesh. I started to turn a dirty gray color, and gray stuff was falling out of me. There were holes all over me, on my legs, hands, and arms. I cried, "Oh no! I'm in hell forever! Oh no!" I started to feel the worms inside me and I was looking at my bones which were full of them. Even when I couldn't see them, I knew they were there.. I tried to pull them out of me, but more were coming in their place. I could really feel the rotting of my body. Yes, I knew and could remember exactly everything that happened on earth. I could feel, see, smell, hear, and taste the tortures of hell. I could even see inside myself. I was just a dirty skeletal form, and yet I could feel everything that was happening to me. I saw others like myself there were as many souls as you could see. I cried out in great agony, 'O Jesus! Please help me Jesus I wanted to die but I couldn't. I could feel the fire rekindling at my feet. I cried, "Where are you Jesus?" I rolled on the floor in pain with the others.

An unbearable pain gripped our souls. I kept crying out, "Where are you Jesus? Where are you Jesus?*" I thought maybe it was all just a dream? Could I wake up? Was I really in hell? Maybe I had committed some mortal sin before God and I lost salvation? Maybe I had sinned against the Holy Spirit. I knew that my family was somewhere above me, like the other souls which I saw and talked to. It seemed very strange to be able to see through my body. I could feel them climbing in pain and fear. Just then a demon said to me, "Your Jesus deceived you, didn't He? You're Satan's property now anyway!" And a devilish laugh came out of him as he picked me up and placed me on top of a mound. I soon discovered that I was on the back of an undead-living form of some kind of animal. The animal, like me, was gray - dirty, full of filth and decay, dead flesh. A terrible smell filled the air.

The animal took me up a ledge on the roof. I was thinking, 'Oh Lord, where are you?'. On our way we passed many souls crying out to be saved. I heard the loud sound of the jaws of hell opening and other souls passed me by. My hands were tied in the back. The pain was not constant, it came suddenly and suddenly disappeared. I screamed every time the pain came and I waited with horror when they calmed down. I was thinking, How am I going to get out of here? What awaits me ahead? Is this the end? What have I done to deserve hell?

"Oh my God, where are you?" I cried out in pain.

I cried, but no tears came out, only dry sobs shook my body. The animal stopped in front of something. I looked and saw a wonderful room full of extravagant riches and glittering jewels. In the center of the room was a beautiful woman dressed in royal clothing. In my state of despair I still wondered what it was. I said, "Woman, please help me." She came close and spat in the shape of my face. He cursed me and said dirty things to me. "Oh God, what's next?" I shouted. A devilish laugh came out of her. Right before my eyes the woman changed into a man, a cat, a horse, a snake, a rat, and a young man. Whatever it wanted to be, it was. She had great devilish power. High above the room was written "Empress of Satan." The animal went on for what seemed to me hours, and then stopped. With a jerk, I was thrown from the animal down. I looked up and saw an army of men on horses coming towards me. I was forced to run towards the wall until they passed. They too were an army of skeletons the color of dirty gray death.

After they passed, I was lifted from the bottom and put in a cell. When the one who threw me locked the cell, I looked in horror in the cell and wept, I prayed, but without any hope.... I wept and repented a thousand times for my sins. Yes, I thought about the many things I could have done to lead others to Christ and help others when they needed me. I repented of the things I did and the things I left undone. "Oh God, save me," I cried, crying. I was constantly calling on God to help me. I could no longer see or feel him. I was in hell just like everyone else I had seen. I fell down in pain and cried. I felt that everything was lost forever. The hours passed, and very often that loud noise was heard, and other souls fell into hell. I kept shouting, "Jesus, where are you?" No answer came. The worms were starting to climb inside my spirit form again. I knew everything that was happening inside me. Death was everywhere. I had no flesh, no organs, no blood, no body, no hope. I was constantly pulling worms out of my skeletal form. I knew everything that was happening, and I wanted to die, but I couldn't. My soul was more alive than ever. I began to sing about the life and power in the blood of Jesus, which is able to save from sin. Then some great demons with spears came and shouted, "Finish!" They pierced me with their spears, and I felt streams of fire pass through me as they drove their spears into my form. They stabbed me countless times. They started chanting, "Satan is god here. We hate Jesus and everything He teaches." When they saw that I did not stop singing, they took me out of the cell and dragged me to an open place. "If you will not be silent," they said, "your tortures will be greater." I stopped singing, and finally they took me back to the cell. I remembered the scriptures about the fallen angels being kept in chains until the final judgment. I wondered if this was my judgment. "God, save the people of the earth," I cried, crying. Wake them up before it's too late." Many verses came to mind, but I didn't say them because I was afraid of demons. Moaning and howling filled the dirty air. A rat crawled up to me. It- I kicked. I was thinking of my husband and children. "Oh God, don't let them come here," I cried, because I was sure that God could not hear me the screams of hell, I thought. A big rat came running and bit me. I felt a fire coming from nowhere to burn towards me. I was a sinner. "Oh, come!" I cried. The whole jaw of hell was filled joined my cries. Lost forever! I wanted to die, but I couldn't. I fell in a heap, feeling all these tortures. I heard the jaws of hell open again, and other souls entered them. The fire was burning me now, and a new pain appeared. I knew everything that was happening to me. I had an awake and acutely clear mind. I knew all these things, and I knew that when souls died on earth and were not saved from their sins, they came here. O my God, save me! Save me!" I cried. "Please save us all." I remembered all my life, and those who ever told me about Jesus. I remembered how I had prayed for the sick and how the Lord had healed them. I remembered Jesus' words of love and comfort and his faithfulness. If I had been even more like Jesus, I wouldn't be here now, I thought. I thought about all the good things that Jesus gave me, how He gave me the very air that I breathed, the food, the children, the house, and other good things that I enjoyed. But if He is a good God, then why am I here? I had no strength to rise, but my soul was crying out incessantly, "Get me out of here!" I knew that life was moving on above me and somewhere my friends and family were living their normal lives. I knew there was laughter, love and kindness somewhere up there. But even these were beginning to fade in the terrible pain. Semi-darkness and a thick dirty mist filled this part of hell. A low yellow light was everywhere, and the smell of rotting flesh, and corruption - it was almost too much to bear.

Minutes seemed like hours, and hours turned into eternity. Oh, when will all this end? I had no sleep, no rest, no food and no water. I was very hungry, and I was more thirsty than I could remember ever being in my life. I was so tired and so sleepy but the pain was continuous. Every time the jaws opened and dropped a new load of lost humanity into hell, I wondered if it was one I knew. Will they bring my husband here too? It's been hours since I came to the jaws of hell. But suddenly I noticed that a light began to fill the room. Suddenly the fire stopped, the rat ran away, and the pain left my body. I was looking where my escape was coming from, but I couldn't see anything. I was wondering what happened to her. I looked at the entrances of hell, knowing that something terrible had happened. And then all hell began to shake, and the burning fire began again. Snakes, rats and worms again! An unbearable pain filled my soul and the tortures began again. "Oh God, let me die," I cried, starting to beat the dirt floor of mine with my bare hands. I howled and shouted, I cried, but no one knew and no one cared.

Suddenly I was lifted from the cell by an unseen force. When I regained consciousness, the Lord and I were sitting near my house. I cried out, "Why, Lord, why?" and I fell at His feet in despair. Jesus said, 'Peace be with you. Be still.'" Suddenly I was filled with peace. He gently lifted me up, and I fell into a deep sleep in His arms. When I awoke the next day, I was very sick. For days I re-experienced the horrors of hell and its tortures. At night I woke up screaming and saying that worms were climbing on me. I was so afraid of hell.

Heaven

I was sick for many days after I was released from the jaws of hell. I had to have the lights on when I went to bed. I needed the Bible with me all the time, and I read constantly. My soul had gone through a terrible shock. Now I knew what the lost felt as they entered hell forever. Jesus was saying to me, "Peace be with you, be still," and peace filled my soul. But minutes later I would wake up screaming, hysterical with fear. All this time, I knew I was never alone, Jesus was always there. But even with this knowledge, sometimes I couldn't feel his presence. I was so afraid of going to hell again that I was even afraid to have Jesus by my side sometimes. I tried to tell others about my experience of hell. Nobody was listening to me. I pleaded, "Please repent of your sins before it's too late." It was very hard for anyone to believe what I told them about the tortures I went through, and how Jesus told me to write about hell. The Lord assured me that He is the Lord who will heal me. And although I thought I would never be healed, still healing came. And then it happened again. Again I was in the Spirit with the Lord Jesus, and we were flying high towards the heavens. Jesus said, "I want to show you the love and goodness of God and some parts of heaven.

I want you to see the wonderful works of the Lord, which are wonderful to behold." Before us we saw two gigantic planets, wonderful and glorious in all their splendor. God himself was the light there. An angel met us and said to me, " See the goodness and mercy of the Lord your God. His mercy endures forever." There was such a strong feeling of love and tenderness coming from the angel that I wanted to cry when he spoke to me again, 'Behold the power and strength and majesty of God. Come let me show you the place He created for His children.' Suddenly, we saw a big planet appear in front of us, as big as the earth. And then we heard the voice of the Father saying, 'The Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit are one. The Father and the Holy Spirit are one I am one. I sent My Son to die on the cross, so that none would be lost. But,' He said with a smile, 'I just wanted to show you the place I have prepared for My children. I take great care of My children. It pains me when a mother loses her child, the very fruit of her womb, My daughter, who was taken out before her time. See, I know all things, and I care. From the moment life comes in the womb, I know. I know of babies who are killed while still in their mothers' wombs, aborted lives that are thrown out and unwanted. I know about stillborn children and those born with defects. From the moment the child is conceived, he is a soul. My angels go down and bring little children to Me when they die. I have a place for them where they can grow, learn and be loved. I give them whole bodies, and restore (remake) all the parts that are missing. I give them glorified bodies. All over that planet there was a feeling of love, an incredibly good feeling that surrounded you. Everything was perfect. From place to place, amidst lush grass and crystal clear springs, there were playgrounds with marble chairs and highly polished wooden benches to sit on. And there were children everywhere you looked, there were children in their childish activities. Each child was dressed in a long white coat without a spot and sandals. The white robes were so bright that they reflected in the magnificent light of the planet. The multitude of colors everywhere accentuated the whiteness of the children's clothes, the angels were the guardians of the gates, and the children's names were all written in a book. I saw the children learning the Word of God and they were being taught music from a golden book. I was surprised to see animals of all kinds coming to the children, or sitting next to them while they were in their angelic school.

After that, the angel showed me another planet that radiated like a bright light before me. The light of her radiance was like that of a million stars, and everything on that planet was wonderful and alive. In the distance I saw two mountains made of pure gold, and closer to me were two golden gates inlaid with diamonds and other precious stones. I knew that this was the new earth and that the city unfolding in all its splendor before me was the New Jerusalem - the city of God come down to earth. And then we were back to the old earth - the earth as it was before the final fire that will cleanse and purify it for God's glorious purpose. And here we saw the New Jerusalem - the Capital of the Millennium City. And I saw people coming out of caves, caves, mountains and coming towards this city. Here Jesus was king, and all the nations of the earth brought him gifts and paid him homage. Jesus gave me the interpretation of this vision. He said, "Soon I will return and take with Me to heaven first the dead who were righteous, then those who will be alive and remain will be caught up to be with Me on high. After this, the Antichrist will reign on the earth for a certain period, and there will be such great tribulation as there never was before, nor ever will be again." "And then I will return with My saints, and Satan will be cast into the bottomless pit, where he will remain for a thousand years. During this thousand years I will reign on earth from Jerusalem. After the Millennium, Satan will be freed for a time, and I will overcome it by the brightness of My coming. Behold, there will be a new earth and a New Jerusalem coming down upon it, and I will reign forever and ever.

FALSE RELIGION

"If the people of the earth would listen to Me," said the Lord, "and repent of their sins, I would stop the works of the Antichrist and the Beast until times of refreshing come. The people of Nineveh at Iona's sermon? I am the same yesterday, today, and forever. Repent, and I will send a time of blessing." Then I heard Jesus say, "My people must love one another and must help one another. They must hate the sin, but love the sinner. By this love all men will know that you are My disciples." While Jesus was speaking, the earth opened, and we were in hell again. I saw the side of a hill full of dead tree trunks, and all around was gray earth. I also saw small pits in the side of the hill, and gray forms of men walking and talking. I followed Jesus down a very winding and dirty path that led up the side of the gray hill. When I got closer, I saw that the people were whole, but dead. They were composed of dead gray flesh, and they were bound together with a rope of bindings, a kind of rope made of gray matter that encircled all the men on the hill.

Although there was no fire in sight, I knew this was part of hell, because dead flesh fell from people's bones and then grew back again very quickly. Death was everywhere, but the people didn't seem to notice they were deep in conversation, Jesus said, "Let's listen to what I'm talking about." One man said to another, "Have you heard of that man Jesus, who came to take away sins?" The other answered, "I know Jesus. He washed away my sins. Actually I don't know why I'm here." "Me neither," replied the first man. The other said, "I tried to tell my neighbor about Jesus, but he wouldn't even listen to me. When his wife died, he came to borrow some money from me for her funeral, but I remembered that Jesus said to be wise as serpents and without malice. I knew he would spend his money elsewhere. We must be good stewards of our money, you know that spoke before now said again. Yes, brother," he said, a boy in our church needed clothes and shoes, but his father was drinking, so I refused to buy anything for his boy I taught that man a lesson." "Very well," said the other man, twisting his connecting rope in his hands and twisting it all nervously towards him, "we must always teach others to live as Jesus lived. That man had no right to drink. Let him suffer." Jesus said, "O foolish and stubborn of heart, wake up to the truth, and love one another with a fervent love. Help the helpless. Give to those in need without thinking of receiving anything in return. "If you will repent, O earth, I will bless you and not curse you. Awake from your sleep, and come to Me.

Humble yourselves and bow your hearts before Me, and I will come and dwell with you. You shall be My people, and I will be your God." I heard the Lord say, 'My Spirit will not strive forever with man. Come see .The Beast. During the last days an evil Beast will arise from the earth and deceive many in every nation of the world. She will ask that everyone receive their number, the number 666, on their hands or on their foreheads. Whoever takes the number or the mark will belong to the Beast and will be thrown with him into the lake of fire that burns with fire and brimstone. The beast will rise to the acclaim of the world, because it will bring such peace and prosperity as no one can remember ever having. When she gains dominion over the world, those without her mark on their foreheads or hands will not be able to buy food, clothes, cars, houses or anything else that can be bought. Nor will they be able to sell anything that belongs to them to anyone else as long as they do not have her mark. The Lord God expressly declares that those who will take the mark will have affirmed their oath of allegiance to the Beast and will be cut off from the Lord God forever. They will have their place with unbelievers and workers of lawlessness. The mark simply represents that those who possess it have already rejected God and have turned to the Beast for sustenance. The beast and his offspring will persecute those who refuse the mark and will kill many of them. Whatever pressure they are able to bring, they will do to force the believers of the true God to be significant. Children and babies will be killed under the eyes of parents who refuse to take the sign. This will be a time of great mourning. Those who will possess the mark will be forced to surrender their possessions to the Beast in exchange for the promise that the Beast will take care of every need of his descendants. Some of you will be weakened, and will surrender to the Beast and receive his mark on your hands or foreheads. You will say, 'God will forgive. God will understand. But I will not change My Word. I have warned you countless times through the mouths of My prophets and through the servants of the Gospel. Repent now while it is still day, for the night is coming when judgment will be decided. If you will not obey the Beast and refuse to take his mark, I will take care of you. I am not saying that many will not die for their faith in these times, because many will be beheaded for their faith in the Lord God. But blessed are those who die in the Lord, because great will be their reward. True, that there will be a great time of peace and prosperity during the reign of the Beast, in which she will gain popularity and respect. It will make the world's problems seem like nothing But peace will end in bloodshed and prosperity in great famine everywhere. Do not be afraid of what man might do to you, but fear Him who can cast both body and soul into hell (gehenna). For although there will be a great persecution and although the troubles will multiply, I will pass and free you from everything. But before the evil day, I will raise up a great army that will worship Me in Spirit and truth. The Lord's army will do great and wonderful works for Me. Therefore, come together and worship Me in Spirit and truth. Bring fruits worthy of repentance, and give Me what is My right, and I will keep you from the evil day. Repent now and be saved from the terrible things that will befall the rebellious and unbelieving. The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life. Call Me while you can, and I will receive you and forgive you. I love you and I don't want you to be lost.

THE RETURN OF CHRIST

I saw the coming of the Lord. I heard His call like the sound of a trumpet and with the voice of an archangel. And the whole earth shook, and the righteous dead came out of the graves to meet the Lord in the air, it seemed to me hours, the trumpets sounded, and the earth and the sea gave back their dead. The Lord Jesus Christ stood above the clouds in fiery garments and watched the glorious scene. I heard the sound of trumpets again; and as I watched, those who were left alive and remained on the earth ascended to meet Him. I saw the redeemed as millions of points of light moving toward the gathering place in the air. There the angels gave them long robes, of the most brilliant and pure white. It was a great joy, the angels were given to keep order, and it seemed that they were everywhere, paying special attention to the resurrected. The redeemed were given new bodies, and they were transformed as they passed through the air. Great joy and happiness filled the heavens and the angels sang, Glory be to the king of kings!" Up in the heavens I saw a great spiritual body, it was the body of Christ. The body was sitting on its back on a bed, and blood was dripping on the ground. I knew that this was the body of our Lord. And then the body grew bigger and bigger until it filled the heavens. And going in and out of it were the millions of the redeemed.

I watched in amazement as millions climbed ladders to the body and filled Him, starting with the soles of the feet and continuing with the feet, hands, stomach, heart and head. And when it was full, I saw that it was full of men and women from every nation, people, and language on earth. And with a great voice they praised the Lord. Millions sat before a throne, and I saw angels bring the books from which the judgment was read. That was the throne of mercy, and many received rewards. Then as I watched, darkness covered the face of the earth, and everywhere there were only demonic forces. Evil spirits without number were released from their prisons and thrown out onto the earth. I heard the Lord say, "Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, for Satan has come to dwell among them." I saw an enraged beast, and its venom spewed forth on the ground. Hell shook in all its fury, and from the bottomless pit came swarming herds of evil creatures who blackened the earth with their great numbers. Men and women ran crying to the hills, caves and mountains. There were wars, famine and death on earth. At the end I saw fiery horses and chariots in the heavens. The earth trembled, and the sun turned red like blood. An angel said, "Listen, O earth, the King is coming!" And the King of kings and the Lord of lords appeared in heaven, and with THEM were the saints of all ages, clothed in the most immaculate white. And I remembered that every eye will see and every knee will bow before Him. Then the angels took their sickles and reaped the ripe wheat which is the end of the world. Jesus said, "Repent and be saved, for the kingdom of God is near. My will and My word will be done. Prepare the way of the Lord." And I thought, We must love each other. We must be firm in the truth and correct our children in the light of the near coming of Christ. Because sure thing, the King is coming.

THE FINAL ACT OF GOD

Jesus said, 'Warn those who are in the world not to be greedy, nor to trust in uncertain (unsteady) riches, but to put their trust in the living God, who gives us all things abundantly for our enjoyment of them. Walk in the Spirit, and you will not fulfill the lusts of the flesh (the lusts of the earthly nature). Make no mistake, God is not mocked. For what a man sows, that shall he also reap. Sow in nature, you will reap rot; Sow in Spirit, you will reap eternal life. The works of the earthly nature are fornication, fornication, impurity, idolatry, witchcraft, enmity, envy, drunkenness, and other such things. Those who do these things will not inherit the kingdom of God. The fruit of the Spirit is these: love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, doing good, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Those who are Christ's have crucified their nature with its lusts. Galatians 5

When the Word of God will be fulfilled, then the end will come. No man knows the day or the hour when the Son of God will return to earth. Even the Son does not know, because this is known only by the Father, the Word is quickly fulfilled. like a child, and let Me cleanse you of the works of nature and the flesh. Tell Me, 'Lord Jesus, come into my heart and forgive me of my sins. I know that I am a sinner, and I repent of my sins. Wash me in Your blood, and make me clean. I have sinned against heaven and before You and I am not worthy to be called Your son. I receive You by faith as my Savior. I will give you shepherds after My own heart, and I will be your shepherd. You will be My people, and I will be your God. Read the Word, and do not leave your meeting. Give your whole life to Me, and I will guard you. I will never leave you, nor forsake you."

People, through a Spirit, we have access to the Father. I pray that you will all come and give your hearts to the Lord.

IEWS OF HEAVEN

Some of the following visions were given to me before Jesus took me to hell. Some of them were near the end of my journey through hell.

LIKE GOD

I received this heavenly vision while I was in deep prayer, meditation, and worship. The glory of God descended upon the place where I was praying. Great waves like fire, bright lights and majestic power came before my eyes. In the center of the fire and lights was the throne of God. On the throne was someone like God. Joy, peace, and love flowed from Almighty God. The air around the throne was filled with childish cherubim, singing and kissing the Lord on His face, His hands and His feet. The song they sang was 'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty.' The cherubim had tongues of fire above their heads and on the tips of each little wing. The movement of their wings seemed to be synchronized with the movement of the Lord's power and glory. A cherub flew towards me and touched my eyes.

THE GOLDEN MOUNTAINS

In a vision I looked into the distance over the face of the earth. We can see that over a distance of several miles (1 mile-1.6 km), the earth was thirsty for rain. The ground was cracked, dry and bare. There were no trees or other vegetation to be seen. Then I was allowed to see beyond the dry land, all the way to the sky. In the distance I saw two gigantic mountains that touched their foot and were side by side. I didn't know their height, but they were very, very tall. I approached these mountains and found that they were made of pure gold - gold so pure that it was transparent. Through these mountains and beyond I saw a bright white light, and the light spread to encompass the whole universe. I felt in my heart that this was the foundation on which all heaven rested.

Men fight over a small golden ring, but God owns all the gold.

BUILDING A HOUSE

During prayer I received this vision. I have seen angels reading the record of the works we are doing here on earth. Some of them had wings, some didn't. Some were big and some were small, but they all had different faces. As with humans, angels could be identified by their facial features. I saw the angels very busy, cutting extremely large diamonds and placing them in the foundations of wonderful buildings. The diamonds were about 18 centimeters thick and 36 centimeters long and were wonderful. Each time a soul was won for God, a diamond was placed at the foundation of the soul-winners' building. No work is in vain when it is done for God.

THE GATES OF HEAVEN

Another time, while I was in prayer, I saw this heavenly vision. I was in the Spirit and an angel came and took me to heaven. Again there were magnificent scenes of lights unfolding in waves and dizzying glory as we saw behind the mountains of pure and pure gold. I felt awe seeing the glory of God unfolding like a panorama. The angel and I approached two giant gates cut into a huge wall and saw two exceptionally large angels armed with swords. They were taller than 15 meters and their hair was like a golden notebook. The gates were so high that I could not see the top. It was the most wonderful piece of art I had ever seen. They were carved by hand and set with stones, diamonds, rubies, sapphires and other precious stones. Everything in the gates was in perfect harmony, and the gates opened outwards. An angel with a book in hand came out. After looking at the book, the angel nodded, confirming that we could enter.

Reader, you cannot enter heaven unless your name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

FILE ROOM

In a vision an angel took me to heaven and showed me a very large room with walls of pure gold. From place to place letters were engraved on the walls in alphabetical order. It felt more like you were in a huge library, but where the books were built into the walls instead of on shelves. Angels in long robes took the books from the walls and studied them carefully. Everything they did seemed to be in a rigid order. I noticed that the books had thick gold covers and some of the pages were red. These books were wonderful. The angel told me that these books contained the life data of every person who had ever been born on earth. I was told that there were other rooms like this and that there were many more data sheets.

From time to time, the archangels brought these data sheets of people before God for approval or disapproval. The books contained prayer requests, prophecies, attitudes, growth in the Lord, souls led to Christ, the fruits of the Spirit and much more. Everything we did here on earth is recorded in a book by the angels. Sometimes the angel took down a book and washed its pages with a fine napkin. The washed pages were turning red.

HEAVENLY STAIRCASE

The Spirit of the Lord gave me the following visions. I saw a spiritual ladder going down to the earth, while another part goes up. The angels on the ladder did not have wings, but each angel had a book with a name written on the front cover. Some of the angels seemed to be giving orders and answering questions put to them by other angels. Once they received the orders and the answers to the questions, they disappeared. I also saw other ladders in other parts of the earth, the angels were in constant motion, ascending and descending, the angels moved with courage and authority because they were messengers with orders from God.

A prophecy from Jesus

When Jesus first appeared to me, He said: "Kathryn, you have been chosen by the Father to accompany Me into the depths of hell, I will show you many things that I want the world to know about hell and heaven . I will tell you what to write, so that this book will be a true testimony of what these unknown places look like. My Spirit will reveal to you secrets about eternity, judgment, death and the afterlife."

The Lord's message to this lost world is this:

"I do not want you to end up in hell. I made you for my joy and eternal fellowship. You are My creation and I love you. Call on Me while I am near and I will hear you and answer you. . I want to forgive you and bless you." To those born again, the Lord says, 'You do not leave your congregation. Gather together, pray and study My Word. worship Me in the Spirit of holiness.'" The Lord says to the churches and nations: "My angels are always fighting for the heirs of salvation and for those who will become heirs. I do not change. I am the same yesterday, today and forever. Seek Me and I will pour out My Spirit upon you . Your sons and daughters will prophesy. I will do great works among you." If you are unsaved, please take the time right now and kneel before the Lord and ask Him to forgive you of all your sins and make you His child. Whatever the cost, you must decide now to make heaven your eternal home.

CLOSING WORDS

I want to assure you again that the things you read in this book are true Hell is a real place of fiery torture. But I also want to tell you that heaven is just as real and can be your home for eternity. I let myself be guided as a servant of the Lord Jesus Christ and faithfully reported these things that were shown to me and that were told to me. For better results, you should read this book together with the Bible and compare what is written here with what is written in the Holy Scriptures. May the Lord cause this book to be used for His glory.

A VISION OF HELL

As I was sitting one evening on the couch, the presence of God filled the living room and I heard a voice saying: "Look (and) here is hell." The first time a wall of fire appeared in front of me. The flames were blue and hot and below you could see a brown spot of the curmezius. In the center of this fire was a substance like gelatin. As I watched, the substance began to tremble and shake, and cries of weeping came out of it: "O God, help me! O God, help me!" He shouted incessantly. Then the Lord said to me: "My child, this substance that you see on fire is a man who has been in hell for 1800 years and is still crying out to Me." And he said to me again: "My child, I have shown you heaven and hell. Choose today where you will spend your eternity."

I said: "Lord, I want to spend eternity with You, because I certainly don't want to go to hell!" I pray that whoever reads this will choose to spend eternity in heaven with God the Father, in the Name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen and amen.

A child of God

Helen Huffman

With God's help, we managed to finish the translation of this book, which we found interesting and very significant. And we give glory to our Lord Jesus Christ for this. Some may not believe what is told in this book. It's really unbelievable stuff. But the things told about the Holocaust and the torture suffered by the Jews under Hitler also seem unbelievable to me. How is it possible for a human mind to conjure up so much torture? However, my unbelief does not prevent reality and my faith (or rather my unbelief) in front of a Jew would be "rainwater", when he knows the lived reality. In Psalm 14:1, God's Word says, "The fool says in his heart, "There is no God," does this mean that God does not exist? Can I by my unbelief abolish reality? Any rational person realizes that it is a joke, at most. Atheism is a delusion, and all who are deceived by Satan in this way will soon realize not only that there is a God, but also that they have done his will unwittingly; too late to change.

No one can return from hell to repent. Now is the time. The Word says in Hebrews 3:15, "Today if you hear His voice do not harden your hearts as in the day of rebellion". But the faith of some who believe in God is just as deceptive (Jacob 2:19-20), but they believe that He in His goodness does not send anyone to hell. That is why they live the same as the pagans: they lie, steal, drink, hate, fornicate, do not forgive, scold and others of this kind, saying that God is understanding and forgives, that this is their nature and they cannot change.

Indeed, none of us can change on our own. But if we ask God's help to help us change, He will do it, if we give up our stubbornness, and humbly and sincerely bend our knees asking the Lord Jesus to wash away our sins in His blood, and to give us strength to we do not sin from here on. AND HE WILL!!! Indeed, hell was created for Satan and his angels, and God does not send anyone to hell, but all those who do not live in righteousness and holiness choose Satan for themselves as their lord, and they will go where he will go - their master.

If you do his will, Satan will draw you there with a force that you will not be able to resist, just like a bird hypnotized by a snake. You can only be saved if you have someone stronger than Satan. The only one who defeated Satan is the Lord Jesus, when on the hill of Golgotha, being crucified for us, he took all the sins of mankind upon himself (Isaiah 53:4-11). .There is no other name in which we can be saved (Acts 4:12).

But Jesus does not come uninvited, and if you invite him, then he demands your obedience. It is very simple, you cannot serve two masters at once (Matthew 6:24). You either serve THEM or Satan. Choose Him NOW your Lord! The only way to be able to get to heaven with the Lord Jesus is by repenting of bad deeds, by cleansing our conscience in the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ and by being born again.

Maybe you will ask what you have to do to repent, or to be born again. The Lord Jesus said: "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through Me. (John 14:6) Jesus does not lie. Believe in Him, trust in Him and B will work today! First of all, you must admit that you are a sinner, who does not deserve to go to heaven based on his deeds. (if you didn't swear, you lied; if you didn't lie, you stole; if you didn't steal, you fornicate; if you didn't fornicate, you were hateful, or greedy, or you didn't forgive the one who wronged you, or you scolded, or you are careless of God, or you are not afraid of H, etc.) Read Romans 1: 29-32 and 2:4-7 in Isaiah 64:6 The word says that our good deeds are like a dirty cloth before God , so we cannot rely on our works, but only on His grace. If our good works are like this, what shall we say about the bad ones? But maybe you say that you have no sin: you don't drink, you don't smoke and you haven't broken into anyone's house... The Word of God says in Romans 3:23 "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." Who do you think is wrong, God or you? Maybe you think that you will have another chance to rehabilitate yourself before God; there are so many "modern" currents that teach that you will be reincarnated and you will be able to change in another life what you did wrong now. Lies.

The Bible shows that these are heretical teachings; those who teach them lose themselves and lose those who believe them. Read Hebrews 9:27 where it says that "... it is appointed for men to die once, and after that comes judgment."

Then, you must believe in your heart that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, who came to earth to die for the sins of mankind; in which you are also included, and that God raised him from the dead (Romans 10:9-10). You must confess this loudly with your mouth either in a prayer group or at a Church that believes in the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ as the only way of salvation, and that believes in being born again. He also confesses to other unbelievers (1 John 5:12). finally, you must now believe that you are part of God's children by faith (Romans 10: 9-11). in John 1: 12 it says. "But to all who received Him, that is, to those who believe in His Name, He gave them the right to become children of God." In Ephesians 5:14-16 it says to redeem the time that the days are evil. Today surrender to Him and be a new creature. You will never regret this step, on the contrary you will regret not doing this earlier. As I now regret the years lost without Him. May the Lord Jesus help you to see in the spiritual world the importance of this fact and to tell others about the Good News, that we are forgiven through the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ, to Him be the glory forever! Amen. If you have taken this step, and if this book has encouraged you to return, please write to us to pray for you, and to enjoy God's work. We have nothing to gain from your return to God, but the Word says in Luke 15:7 that "there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who have not need of repentance." If you don't have a Bible, get in touch with a Christian Church: Pentecostal, Baptist or Gospel Christians and ask them to give you one. If you can't find it at all or if you have any doubts about the above, or anything else from the Word of God, please write to us urgently and we will send you the answer or the Bible as soon as possible.

May the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Living and True God, strengthen you, give you His spiritual blessings and those necessary for everyday life and make you thirst more and more for Him.

M.B.

To the only GOD, the FATHER and JESUS CHRIST, the SON and the HOLY SPIRIT, be ALL THE GLORY, EXTENSION, HONOR and GLORY forever and ever, for the translation and printing of this book.

AMEN

REPENT, FOR THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN

IT'S CLOSE.

Whoever will believe and be baptized will be saved; but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

Mark 16:16

When we turn to God in prayer, the devil knows that we receive powers against him
that's why he strongly opposes it.

Christian material offered free of charge, for the full knowledge of God and His love for us, the People.

He received you as a gift, you should also give as a gift.